Hello Everyone,

This month has seen us busy contacting new applicants from different areas, sending them info packs, and visiting their prospective family day care homes; doing some of the initial risk assessments. We feel very excited when people tell us that a friend, or someone they know has told them about us. So, thank you to all of you for putting the word out there for us.

February, is the start of the new academic year for some children and for others it is reaching a new milestone. We have seen, Ella, Troy, Jonas and Isla going to school for the first time ever so, we wish them well, and we know they will all do well, they are smart, sociable, fun and caring. I can't wait to hear how the whole school experience has been so far for all of them.

There has been a number of birthday celebrations already in the family day care homes. I swear, me being there visiting on the dates has been pure coincidence but, the cakes have been delicious! I love the excitement, the singing and the anticipation before the celebration. Thank you to all the parents for being such great role model at teaching their children sharing.

Some forms has been sent out for parents to update some information, or to inform us of any changes that may have occurred during the holiday season and that we may need to know. Change of phone number, addresses of children, parents, children moving to an other school, etc. Please everyone we need your help to follow this up. Thank you.

Keep up the good work everyone, thank you for sharing your new playing spaces set

Up. I can see how much work and dedication all of you have put into it. I like how you have included natural materials in your settings and I can see the children's approval by being happily engaged, busy and cooperatively playing with one another.

The weather is still very warm so, don't forget slip, slop, slap everyone! I still have some gumnuts left to share with you, if you need some give us a yell we will bring it when we next visit you.

Until next time, cheers!
