

APPLICATION GUIDELINES FOR ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY IN THE INTER-REGIONAL SOCIETY OF JUNGIAN ANALYSTS

General Considerations:

The I-RSJA has no permanent headquarters. Training takes place at semi-annual Society meetings and in Local Training Seminars located throughout the United States. As such, applicants applying for admission to the I-RSJA Training Program must be currently enrolled in the Seminar and actively attending classes.

Potential applicants are required to spend a pre-application period of at least six months in an I-RSJA Local Training Seminar. In addition, the following requirements apply:

1. Possess at least a Master's degree. It should be noted that a graduate degree qualifying an applicant to practice psychotherapy in their state must be obtained prior to entering the Control/Diploma State of training in the IRSJA.
2. Confirmation of 100 hours of face-to-face personal analysis with an IAAP accredited analyst prior to March 1st of the year of application. The applicant is expected to be in analysis at the time of application and the 100 hours of analysis are expected to have taken place within three years prior to application for candidacy.
3. Regular attendance and participation in the Seminar for a minimum of six months prior to application to the I-RSJA. A letter of approval from the Seminar Coordinator is required in order for the applicant to have an I-RSJA admissions interview.
4. The financial and personal resources to invest in a training that may take anywhere from six to ten years and cost at least $15,000 a year (costs of analysis and case consultation, Seminar fees, travel and lodging for seminars and to semi-annual Society meetings in various cities around North America).
5. Requisite legal authority to practice psychotherapy/analysis in the state or country of residence, except in states where, at the time of application for the propaedeuticum, licensure is not required to see clients.
6. Minimum age: 25 years.
7. Submission of application* and supporting documents must be sent to the I-RSJA Director of Admissions by March 1st.
