Cyprus International Trust

- The Cyprus International Trust legislation enables non-tax residents of Cyprus to create a Trust in Cyprus and enjoy the
 - highest possible protection of assets
 - enable international estate planning
 - enjoy substantial tax benefits and strict confidentiality.
- In a Cyprus International Trust the Settlor transfers the property and or the assets to a legal or physical person, called the Trustee, who holds the property for the benefit of the beneficiary/ beneficiaries in accordance with the terms of the “Trust Deed”.
- A valid trust must meet 3 criteria (a) the intention to benefit other persons (b) the trust property and (c) the identifiable beneficiaries.

Common Use of Trust

- Trusts can be used for a number of purposes, the most common are estate planning and asset protection.
- Certain assets can be placed into a Cyprus International Trust to safeguard them for future generations and to protect the interests of beneficiaries.
- The position under Cyprus law that only Cyprus court decisions are recognized in Cyprus on the matters concerned with Cyprus trusts adds to the protection of assets settled in a Cyprus trust.

Trust Setup Conditions

- Conditions to be met for the setup of Cyprus International Trust:
 - the Settlor, must not be a resident of Cyprus during the calendar year, preceding the year of creation of the Trust and
 - the beneficiaries, must not be resident of Cyprus during the calendar year, which precedes the year of creation of the Trust and
 - at least one of the Trustees must be an eligible resident of Cyprus.
- One year after the creation of a Trust the beneficiaries and the settlors may relocate to Cyprus.

Trust Advantages

- Exclusive jurisdiction of Cyprus courts regarding the validity of the Trusts and the exclusion of court decisions on Trusts issues.
- The provisions of the Cyprus International Trust Law have express superiority over any other law in Cyprus.
- Possibility to grant extended powers to Settlers. Settlor may exercise control although appointment of Protector/ Trustee.
- Avoidance of forced heirship rules.
- Asset protection possibility.
- Flexibility on investments and perpetual accumulation of income.

Trust Advantages

- Flexibility of Terms.
