Nancy McWilliams, Ph.D., ABPP

Nancy McWilliams is a clinical psychologist and psychoanalyst who teaches at the Graduate School of Applied & Professional Psychology at Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey. She is author of Psychoanalytic Diagnosis: Understanding Personality Structure in the Clinical Process (1994, 2011), Psychoanalytic Case Formulation (1999), and Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy: A Practitioner's Guide (2004), and is Associate Editor of the Psychodynamic Diagnostic Manual (2006). Her books have been translated into twelve languages, and she has lectured widely both nationally and internationally. Dr. McWilliams has written widely on personality structure and personality disorders, psychodiagnosis, sex and gender, trauma, intensive psychotherapy, and contemporary challenges to the humanistic tradition in psychotherapy. She is Past President of the Division of Psychoanalysis of APA, Consulting Editor of the Psychoanalytic Review, and on the editorial board of Psychoanalytic Psychology. She has received awards and been formally recognized for her books and other contributions to the field. Dr. McWilliams specializes in psychoanalytic psychotherapy and supervision; the relationship between psychodiagnosis and treatment; alternatives to DSM-IV diagnosis; integration of feminist theory and psychoanalytic knowledge; the application of psychoanalytic understanding to the problems of diverse clinical populations; altruism; narcissism; structural diagnosis; dissociation and dissociative disorders. She has a private practice in Flemington, New Jersey.

Workshop Objectives

1. Participants will be able to apply the presented theoretical concepts to their professional practices.
2. Participants will learn to conceptualize personality dynamics in a way that informs psychotherapeutic practice.
3. Participants will better appreciate the clinical utility of psychoanalytic thinking.
4. Participants will learn sixteen facets of overall psychological health and how these are related to their clients' growth in psychotherapy.
