

Happenings On the Hill

MONTHLY NEWSLETTER-CHAPEL HILL UMC-FEBRUARY 2018

SCOUT SUNDAY FEBRUARY 4TH BY MARLA OWENS

The Fellowship Team will be hosting a pot luck February 4th after the 11:00 service at 12:00. We will be celebrating Chapel Hill's 40 years of involvement in the Boy Scout program. We would like to honor them and their parents and their commitment to this program by hosting a potluck lunch. We are asking those with last name starting with A through M to bring a vegetable dish and N through Z a salad. We will be having a Special cake for this celebration. There are sign up sheets in the Lobby and Children's Department. Please let us know if you are going to be attending so we can plan appropriately.

ASH WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 14TH BY MARLA OWENS

On February 14th Chapel Hill will be hosting the Ash Wednesday service for the Methodist churches in our area. First Methodist, Bennet Memorial and Cairo Methodist will be our guest that evening. We will share a light meal at 6:00 PM before the 7:00 PM service. If you would like to help with this meal please call Marla Owens at 270-826-6541 or Mary Beth Buckman at 270-869-8185.

S.I.S.S. SMALL GROUP COLLECTING TOILETRIES

S.I.S.S. (Sisters In Spirit and Service) Small Group will be collecting toiletries for our local high school. A large basket has been placed under the coat rack to collect the items. Products such as shampoo, conditioner, shaving supplies, feminine products, toothbrushes, toothpaste, etc. can be brought and placed in the basket through the month of February.

PARKING CONCERNS

The Trustees request your assistance to make sure parking is available and accessible for all who come to worship at Chapel Hill. New "senior parking" spots have been designated on the east end of the main church building and marked with signs. These spots are reserved for those who find difficulty in walking up the hill to the main entrance or the long steps leading to STATIC Hall. If any other parking concerns are present, please notify the Trustees so that a solution may be put in place.

CELEBRATE RECOVERY/ GRIEF GROUP

Monday, February 5th, we are starting a new group "The Journey Begins Grief Group" at 6 PM in the Library. The group will meet the first Monday of each month. We have an inner core of strength and courage that sometimes is not tapped until a major problem arises. Former prisoner of war (POW) of the Vietnam War Bruce Laingen said it best when he said, "We're like tea bags. We don't know our strength until we get in hot water." (I first heard this quote when I attended Grief Share Group at our church, Chapel Hill about 2 years ago.) Bring a friend and be part of the discussion. "Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted." Matthew 5-4

"HUNGRY LIONS AND PRESSING DEADLINES"

One of the things we know about the Old Testament prophet Daniel is that he was a man of prayer. The bible tells us that "three times a day he got down on his knees and prayed" (Daniel 6:10). We also know that when he was ordered not to pray by a king who could've executed him for disobedience, he decided to pray about it (Daniel 6:6-10). As a result, his conduct was reported to the king and he was thrown into a den of lions. Of course we know that in the end God delivered Daniel from the lions. But it's interesting to notice how undeterred Daniel was in his original commitment to prayer.

When we compare Daniel's prayer life with our own, we have to admit that we often surrender our privileged conversations with God to much less demanding circumstances. Even the smallest hindrances can cause us to set aside or reschedule our quiet times with God.

God, give us a love for time with you that resists the demands of hungry lions and busy morning schedules.

A LETTER FROM PASTOR AMY

Dear Church,

We have begun this new year with our resolution for God to transform us as people and as a church. Now February is here! As I reflect on this past month, I have been overjoyed to see the areas of growth for this church. I have attended meetings of excited people who are praying for discernment in the coming year. I have visited people and shared in their stories of joy and sadness. I have seen a yearning for the Word and for discernment on God's paths that he has laid down before us. We are on the way!

But there have been setbacks too. We've had problems with water leaks and pipes with snow days littered among them. We have lost members of our flock. We have in our reevaluating seen issues with how we do things and the tools we use to get things done. I think sometimes these sort of setbacks can be life-draining. They drain us of our motivation and energy and in turn we forget that God is still in charge.

It is in times that these that I am thankful that the vision God gives us is for the long term, not the short term. Jesus said that He is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. To believe that is to know that the storms will pass because God's hand is in our path. Thanks be to God!

With Blessings,
Pastor Amy

MUSIC NOTES BY GAIL WALLER

Have you ever played in a bell/chime choir? Did you know that Chapel Hill Church has a brand new set of choir chimes just waiting to be played to make beautiful music?

I am Gail Waller, a church musician, music educator, past director of CH Children's' musicals and hand bell choir and current leader of the Chapel Hill Ringers, our adult hand chime bell group.

We invite you to attend our bell group practices- Wednesday evenings at 5:00-6:00 P.M. (right before choir practice in case you may attend that group too) in the choir room.

We want to give any adult (or young adult) the opportunity to participate, regardless of previous musical experience or music reading skills. You DO NOT HAVE TO BE ABLE TO READ MUSIC to participate with us.

As I was reading in last week's Religion section of the paper, my eye was drawn to Evan Jackson's article on worship. He states "there is another practical expression of worship that we sometimes overlook...service. What should motivate us is the understanding that we are not just serving people, but serving God. Our real ministry is toward the Lord; we just perform it by serving people."

That is exactly what we are attempting to accomplish through our bell chime choir ministry-we want to offer up bell acclamations at the beginning of worship services and to share our music with others in the community, but by doing so our music is actually a service to God.

Come serve with us!!!!

ALZHEIMER'S CAREGIVERS GROUP

We will meet Thursday February 1st at 2:00 PM in the library. The group is open to the community. We are studying the book Self Care for Caregivers. The Caregiver group goal is to equip us to change the things we can and find peace with what we can't. The group needs support from Chapel Hill caring members of our congregation.

WHEN WE WORK TOGETHER, WE MAXIMIZE OUR IMPACT

Ecclesiastes 4:9-12 says, “Two people are better than one, because they get more done by working together. If one falls down, the other can help him up. But it is bad for the person who is alone and falls, because no one is there to help. If two lie down together, they will be warm, but a person alone will not be warm. An enemy might defeat one person, but two people together can defend themselves; a rope that is woven of three strings is hard to break” (NCV).

This passage has a lot to say about serving with others in ministry, but it can be summarized in three statements:

1. When we work together, we maximize our impact.

We get more done. Do you want to make a global impact with your life? Then do it with other people in your church, because what we do together as the Body of Christ will be far more significant than what we do individually. One drop of rain doesn't make a big difference on a desert, but a million drops of rain can turn that desert into a garden.

2. When we work together, we minimize our failure.

As Verse 10 asks, when you're serving on your own and you fall down, who's going to pick you up? When we serve together and one person falls down, the other people just pick him up. Doesn't that make a simple but profound point? We need to work with other people to encourage each other and minimize our failures.

3. When we work together, we mobilize our resources.

When we pool our resources and funds, they go further. You can share the blanket, and two people will stay warm instead of one.

In Matthew 25:40, Jesus taught, “I tell you the truth, anything you did for even the least of my people here, you also did for me” (NCV).

(Rick Warren's devotion for Jan 25 2018)

4 WAYS TO TEACH YOUR KIDS LOVE THIS VALENTINE'S DAY

1. As parents before we can teach anything we must first do a bit of research.

What is it that the Bible tells us about God's love. (Look up these verses together: 1 John 4:8; 1 Corinthians 13:4-8; John 3:16; Mark 12:30-31; John 15:13; 1 John 3:16-18) As we are then discussing this with our children we need to not only enforce to them that God's love is a perfect love but that His love is a type of love that we should aspire to give others as well.

Speak of those real life examples of those who give real life examples.... Missionaries, Preachers, Sunday School teachers and parents are all good places to look for this selfless love.

2. Of course no good lesson is never complete until we show an example.

One of the greatest ways to show our children how to love is to show it to others ourselves. Allowing your children to see you serving and caring for others is a wonderful way to plant that seed of service in their hearts.

- ♥ Visit the elderly in your church
- ♥ Make a special trip to visit a widow for Valentine's Day
- ♥ Send out little valentines and instead of signing your name include a Bible verse.
- ♥ Use this day to reach those around you and to minister to your children's hearts. Trust me they are watching and taking notes.

3. Next up it is time to allow them to put to practice what they are learning.

Now this can be done in several day to day operations in your home. For example are your children struggling to get along....This would be a great time to pull our Bible verses to remind them how we are suppose to handle conflict with one another. Have your children tell you what it is that they are good at. Once they decide, figure out a way that they can use that gift to bless someone and then make it happen. Constantly seek out ways that your child can apply what they have learned about God's love and then help them to achieve it.

4. Finally remember to praise them for their efforts.

The world we live in is full of those who wish to quiet those who want to bask in God's love and quiet those who want to speak of God's love. Remind them often while they are little why this is all so important, share with them your own struggles and be your child's private cheerleader. This will create a bond in your future missionary that can never be broken.

CHAPEL KIDS

Chapel Kids is looking forward to a great month with several things going on. First, we are offering early registration for the 2018-19 school year to families who are currently enrolled in the program, and also anyone who attends Chapel Hill regularly. We will open registration up to the public March 1st, so if you are interested in enrolling a child please take advantage of this opportunity and reserve your spot early. You can see our church website, www.chchurch.org for more information, or to fill out the pre-registration form. We are having a picture day on Tuesday, February 6th, and our annual Valentine's Day party on Thursday, February 15th. We are still in need of substitute teachers, so if you or someone you know may be interested in this part-time position, please contact Stephanie Powell (270-860-1071) or Denise Kirtley (270-577-0141) for more information.

PRESCHOOL

During the month of August, our little ones learned about the wonderful world that God made. They heard stories about the plants and the animals, the sky and the water, of course, the people that God made!

This month, they will be learning that they can do super things when they trust that God is always with them and do things His way! All kids want to be Super Kids, and they can be when they realize that God is always with them. They will learn that because God is always with them, they can be brave. Because God is with them, they can be courageous. Because God is with them, they can be wise. They will hear exciting stories about Elijah, Esther, Rahab, and Joshua! Their bible verse this month is

Be strong (put right forearm and wrist out in front of you, similar to Wonder Woman) and courageous! (Put left forearm and wrist out in front of you and hit wrists together.) Do not be afraid . . . (wind up in a crazy karate chop pose and chop down on the word “afraid”), for the LORD (point your right hand up) your God (point your left hand up) goes with you (put both hands on hips in a ‘strong’ pose), Deuteronomy 31:6 (hold out hands like a book).

Please Notify the Office of Schedule Changes

Please notify the office of any scheduling changes. For example; room changes, change in meeting time, or cancellation of meetings. The doors are unlocked electronically. If an event is changed or cancelled the building is left opened. The Office Manager, Sarah Scott, has remote access to the locks and can be reached at 270-860-0458 or you can call the church office at 270-826-3593.

If you have any questions, please call Marie Rutledge, 270-577-2224. Also, please register your children through our Facebook page or at the check-in station children's wing. The sooner we can get a head count the better we can plan!

Drive Team Ministry

Have you been looking for a Ministry to be a part of? The Drive Team is looking for drivers to help those in our community attend their doctor appointments. If this is something you feel you would like to be a part of contact the church office or Stan Glenn.

INCLEMENT WEATHER POLICY

Chapel Hill's policy regarding cancellations due to inclement weather:

- ✱ Sunday morning service will be called by Pastor Mike via One Call, Facebook, WSON and Channel 14.
- ✱ Youth and Children's programming will follow the school system. If school is cancelled, the programs are cancelled. The Chapel Hill Family Ministries Facebook page will be updated with the cancellation notices.
- ✱ Celebrate Recovery will also be cancelled if the schools are cancelled.
