

FUN WITH HOMOPHONES

Directions: Bizz and Buzz are bee-fuddled. Help them figure out which spelling to use in each sentence below.

1. Bizz and Buzz are (two, too) funny bees.
2. They (ate, eight) a honey bun at Bear's house.
3. Then they wanted to make (there, their) own honey buns.
4. Bear told them they needed (flower, flour).
5. They (new, knew) just where to look.
6. A rose is a type of (flower, flour).
7. The bees thought the tulips were (to, too) big.
8. They found (some, sum) buttercups.
9. Bear told the bees to (ad, add) water to the flour.
10. It began to (rain, rein).
11. The (sun, son) in the sky made the bees hot.
12. The bees (no, know) where to find honey.
13. (Their, There) honey buns did not look like Bear's.
14. What (do, due) you think the bees did wrong?