WORSHIP AND PRAYER

Everyday Stewardship

Jesus claimed that the world would know his disciples by the fact that they loved one another. In the Church, we speak of loving one another quite frequently. I hope that someone can tell that I am a disciple of Jesus by the way I love others. However, that hope is something I have to keep in the center of my mind because I fear too often that I speak more of love than act out of love.

As Christians, we can find ourselves hiding behind our words. History, unfortunately, has shown us that our witness of action has not always been profound enough. The world will surely know whom it is we serve if we love like Jesus, we act like Jesus, and we serve others like Jesus. Our stewardship will bear witness to the transforming power of Jesus Christ, and we will bring others to him. Our love will be an instrument of our evangelization. Our words will become true, not because we said them enough, but because they are true.

MINISTRIES AND SACRAMENTS

Music Ministry
fzelinka@stpiustenthparish.org

As we are now celebrating the 5th Sunday of Easter. For most of us, our fast paced lives continue, the joy of Easter Sunday seems to fade as we go back our normal lives and everyday problems. However, the Church continues to celebrate Easter all the way until Pentecost. It's easy for us who have been Christians for a long time to forget just how life changing the Resurrection of Jesus is. It means that death is not the end. It means that when Christ says, 'Follow me', the road does not end at the cross. Death does not have the final word as it often seems. If we follow Christ to the cross, we will also follow Him in the Resurrection. No matter what trials and struggles we experience in this life, we can always proclaim the truth that 'Christ is risen, Alleluia' and that truth changes everything. So let us continue to raise our voices in praise and tell the world the good news of Easter Sunday.

"This is how all will know that you are my disciples if you have love for one another."

At the Passover meal Jesus shared with his disciples He tried to prepare them for the persecution He was expecting from the Jewish leaders and the Romans. Jesus had done nothing wrong, but it was the good He had done that was a threat to the power and wealth of the people in control. Jesus was also preparing His disciples to carry on his mission and teach His message after he was gone. And they could only do that if people knew they were his disciples by the way they loved one another, and loved others. Jesus knew His disciples would face the same threats and treatment by the same people who wanted to stop Him. Jesus also knew that true love can be difficult for many reasons. Love is not easy, but Jesus demonstrated it is possible.
