

SWUSITT Winter Symposium

Please join us for the Southwest United States Institute for Theatre Technology's Winter Symposium. SWUSITT is an organization of Design, Production, and Technology professionals, educators, and students.

This year the symposium will be held at Texas State University in San Marcos, Texas, January 18-20. We are thrilled to announce our keynote speakers:

Design Keynote Speaker:

Howell Binkley is a professional lighting designer in New York City. He received the Tony Award for Best Lighting Design in a Musical for Jersey Boys in 2006, and again in 2016 for Hamilton. He has lit numerous Broadway productions, including many for Hal Prince and is a frequent collaborator with director Des McAnuff. He is also a collaborator and co-founder of Parsons Dance Company. He has worked at regional theaters such as La Jolla Playhouse, Shakespeare Theatre DC, Old Globe Theatre, Guthrie Theater, Goodman Theatre, and Hartford Stage.

Technology Keynote Speaker:

Richard Cadena is a freelance lighting designer, lighting consultant, and the author of Automated Lighting: The Art and Science of Moving Light; Lighting Design for Modern Houses of Worship; Electricity for Entertainment Electricians & Technicians; and Focus on Lighting Technology. He has worked on concert tours, television, and theatre, and he has designed dozens of lighting systems for permanent installations and concert tours. He has written many articles about lighting for Lighting & Sound America, Lighting & Sound International, Protocol, PLSN, CX, and Technologies for Worship magazines. He is the founder of the Academy of Production Technology. He is also an ETCP Recognized Trainer, and the technical editor for PLASA.

Join us for a weekend filled with numerous sessions on design, technology and management, as well as an exhibit of student design/technology/management work.
