Dear Families,

Welcome to our first week of full days. The transition has been seamless!!!! I am incredibly thankful that things are going so well. I have parents, students, and teachers to thank for that. Families are arriving on time and arrival procedures are now routine. Our dismissal process is down from 28 minutes on the first day of school to about 15 minutes which is amazing!!! Students and teachers have adjusted to our full day schedule and it is just so joyful to have everything “back to normal” – as normal as it can be. We celebrated our first school mass today and it was wonderful to have the whole OLSS family (Pre-K and K were with us in spirit) together in one place.

We celebrated Mary’s (Mother of God) birthday on Tuesday and students even had a special sweet treat! May we continue to look to Mary to be the role model of charity and obedience to God. Consider praying the Rosary together as a family or start a habit of reciting three Hail Mary’s before bed!

I look forward to “seeing you” at our virtual Back To School Night on Thursday at 6:30pm!

Stay happy, healthy and holy!
