AGING and SEX: Ha Ha Ha!

A Presentation by the Ever-Popular
Joyce Saltman, Ed.D.

Through a minimum of scientific data and a maximum of humor, this program will deal with the trials and tribulations of being a senior! Joyce will show the beauty of having loving relationships rather than Olympic sex. How insignificant "perfect bodies" are (when our vision isn't that good anyway!), and how to see all of our aging issues in a humorous light.

WHEN: Monday, March 18, 2019, 10:00 AM

WHERE: Grand Villa West

5859 Heritage Park Way, Delray Beach

COST: Complimentary- RSVP required

RSVP by March 11 at

Joyce Saltman is a professor Emeritus of Special Education at Southern Connecticut State University in New Haven, CT. She chose to receive her doctoral degree from Columbia, because she loved the color of their doctoral gown. It was no small feat that she was able to persuade her mentor to allow her to write her dissertation on "Humor in Adult Learning." She also holds four graduate degrees in the fields of Special Education and Counseling. Joyce's innovative teaching style has led to the development of a graduate course entitled, "The Enhancement of Learning Through Humor," as well as a summer institute called, "Healing, Education, Laughter and Play (HELP)."

NCJW SE Atlantic and Valencia Palms Clubs invite you to attend the screening of a new documentary entitled

Nobody Wants Us

It's the story of some of the last refugees allowed into the United States until the end of WWII and the drama of a ship of European Jews held hostage for almost a month. It's a compelling story, told by the teenagers on the ship who later in life recall the experience.

Monday, March 25, 2019 @ 7:00PM

Valencia Palms Social Hall

Entrance on Jog Rd between Lake Ida & Flavor Pict

There is a panel discussion after the film that includes Arlene Davidson, Co-President of NCJW-SE Atlantic Section. During the film you learn how instrumental NCJW was in helping the refugees. The filmmaker will also be present.

Membership

Another successful Meet & Greet was held on February 12th. A resounding thank you to our hostess Elaine Abrams. There were eleven attendees. Two were Life members transferring into our Section and two were new members; all wanted to learn more about our diverse community service programs and strong advocacy projects. We welcome the four ladies who joined that day, Kathy Buchanan, Karen Goldberg, Evelyn Horowitz and Roslyn Rothfeld. We are committed to making their membership experience rewarding and fulfilling.

I would like to remind everyone that anyone who joins in May or June 2019 will have 14 months of paid membership through June, 2020. This is an incentive for prospective members. Be sure to mention this to friends and relatives who have expressed an interest in NCJW or whom you think might enjoy being part of our dynamic group. We'll plan a Meet & Greet for early April. It's through our active members' recruitment that we continue to grow and remain a vital organization of concerned Jewish women who create lasting change through meaningful action.

Volunteer Spotlight: Ellie Mero

This issue's Volunteer Spotlight, is on Ellie Mero. She was chosen because she is extremely active in our our anti sex trafficking projects. Here we ask her: "Why do you do what you do?"

"Project Hope is one of the many local groups we support: I volunteer there because it is an opportunity to raise awareness of a worldwide issue. Sex trafficking can happen anywhere and the idea that it is right here, in my own community, is eye-opening. It is a wonderful feeling to know we are doing something, no matter how small, to help!"

Florida NCJW Legislative Days

This year's Legislative Days are March 12-13, 2019.

You are invited to go to Tallahassee to meet with your State legislators to discuss your concerns and advocate for NCJW policies, together with a delegation from other Florida sections. Hotel and travel costs may be partially reimbursed by SE-Atlantic Section. Interested? Contact Lillian Kaminer, VP Advocacy, at lekaminer@aol.com or 561-482-9592

Washington Institute 2019

Join us in Washington on April 7-9, 2019.

Registration is now open for the 2019 Washington Institute. The Institute starts with speakers, panels, and workshops on issues, advocacy skills, leadership, and policy, preparing you for a day of visits to your members of Congress. Appointments with your Senators and Representatives will be scheduled.

To register, go to www.NCJW.org and follow the Washington Institute link. SE Atlantic Section may reimburse a portion of the cost. Questions? Contact Arlene Davidson at: amdavidson01@gmail.com or Penny Gelb at pgelb@comcast.net.

All who have attended in other years have found this to be an unforgettable experience.

A Place of Hope Outreach (The Chapstick Program)

Our upcoming Boca Outreach dates are March 16th and April 13th at 1:15 PM. We meet at Starbucks (at the corner of Yamato and Congress in Boca) to discuss our plan for the day.

Initial training is at 10:00 AM, March 14th and April 11th at Place of Hope in Boca. We've identified additional hotels and enhanced our discussions with the hotel/motel clerks.

The number of Outreach Volunteers is growing. However, we have room for many more. Please join us as we search for missing and exploited local kids.

Jewish Leader of Tomorrow Scholarships

Are you interested in making a difference in the future of a high school senior Jewish girl in our community?

Have you thought about volunteering for a committee, but don't want to make a huge commitment?

Please join the NCJW Scholarship Committee. We grant an annual scholarship to a deserving senior who presents an application to our committee. We will meet on Sunday, March 17th at 10 AM to review the essays and select the recipients. The essays are compelling and we are often moved by the girls' stories.

If you would like to join us, please contact Ellen Hahn at ellenberk@hotmail.com for more information. We will be happy to have you on board.

Kids Community Closet

On Wednesday, February 13 NCJW SEA opened its fourth Kids Community Closet at Rolling Green Elementary School in Boynton Beach with a ribbon cutting ceremony. We thank our contact person, Amy McAllister, the principal, and the entire front office staff for their assistance and enthusiasm in getting this project started.

A very special thank you goes to our volunteers, Jody Blumenfeld, Beverly Koenigsberg and Carole Valera who were able to shop and fill bins in our new closet with the essentials needed by the children.

The school staff is sincerely appreciative of NCJW's efforts and generosity. We look forward to our continued collaboration with Amy and the staff at Rolling Green.

Sincerely,
Carole Valera

Letter to Jody Blumenthal, Kids Community Closet Volunteer

Hello Jody,

Please forgive me for taking so long getting back to you! I want to thank you all so much for the items that you all brought over to Galaxy Elementary. We really appreciate what you ladies have done for the students: from those having accidents to those not having clothes to wear at all. We hope to continue this program for as long as you all would like to keep us in your program because the continuous need is definitely here.

Thanks again!

Words ...Alive! will dramatize the works of three outstanding humorists. Erma Bombeck, Wendy Wasserstein, and Nora Ephron speak for several generations of women who experienced both immense changes in cultural and social mores. These writers' insights documented the plight of ordinary women finding their way in an ever-changing landscape. In a fictional conversation between them, you will hear segments of their writings which will make you laugh, remember and rejoice.

Cost: $20 members $25 non-members
