

Youth Extensions, Inc. Annual Newsletter

JUNE 24, 2015 EDITION

"Preserving our community, one family at a time"

What's been going on at Youth Extensions?

- We have a new website! www.youthextensionsinc.com went live earlier this year and we are continuing to make it better. Have a suggestion? Come and talk to us, call us, or send an email.
- We are still providing the same quality services you are used to, just serving more people!
- We are working on opening a new site, coming soon to Northampton County.
- We had our first annual Summer Slam party at Longmeadow park and we had over 140 people attend! We hope to make it bigger and better next year and make it an annual Durham summer tradition!

What's new at Youth Extensions?

We have just finished developing our new 3 year strategic plan, here is what to expect!

- YE is working on offering more services and more evidence based practices, such as treatment models for trauma and for working with parents and families!
- YE will work on expanding the types of insurance it accepts including private insurance like Blue Cross Blue Shield and even privately paid services!
- YE will look to provide more services in more areas!

How are we meeting your needs?

- Last year we served 168 different people across Wake and Durham counties!
- 100% of those who responded think that Youth Extensions staff are professional and courteous
- 93% of those who responded said they have noticed improvement in their child's behaviors since beginning services with YE.
- 86% of people who responded said they would recommend Youth Extensions to someone else if they needed services
