

WOMEN SUFFRAGISTS.

Executive Committee Elected Delegates to the Next National Convention.

GLENS FALLS, Nov. 2.—The Executive Committee of the New York State Woman's Suffrage Association met yesterday and elected delegates to the national convention, to be held the first week in June in Minneapolis, as follows:

At Large—Miss Mary S. Anthony, of Rochester; Mrs. Elizabeth Wright Osborne, of Auburn, and Mrs. Mary Hillard Loins, of Brooklyn.

State—Mrs. Martha Prather, of Jamestown; Mrs. Ella S. Hammond, of Hornellsville; Mrs. Emam B. Sweet, of Rochester; Mrs. Elizabeth Humphrey, of Warsaw; Mrs. Mary A. Hubbard, of Cambridge; Miss Amelia Cameron, of Brooklyn; Miss Ida Craft, of Brooklyn; Miss Annie F. Miller, of Geneva; Mr. and Mrs. James Sargent, of Rochester; Miss M. Florence Gregory, of Skaneateles, Miss Anna Willett, of Roslyn; Miss Mary J. Stebbins, of Churchville; Mrs. Julia R. Shepard, of Penn Yan, Mrs. Cornella Cary, of Brooklyn; Mrs. Susan M. Bain and Mrs. A. H. Fish, of Glens Falls, Miss Elizabeth Curtis, of West New Brighton; Dr. Mary Jacobi, of New York; Mrs. Harriet May Mills, of Syracuse; Mrs. Elizabeth Smith Miller, of Geneva; the Rev. Antoinette Brown Blackwell, of New York, and Mrs. Sobedia Alleman, of Union Springs