Stalls are strictly first-come, first-serve basis. A stall is not considered yours until your cattle are in it. Show is open to all junior exhibitors, in and out of state, 21 years of age or under. The Heifer show will begin at 10:00 Saturday April 13th, following Market animals, then showmanship. Steers and heifers will show by breed.

Market Animals: Must have been born in 2018. To be eligible for breed class, steers will need to meet the same percentage requirements as set forth by the breed association, and they must show a predominance of such breed characteristics. All others will show in the crossbred class. Market heifers will only be shown by weight. Market Animals may be shown in only one breed division by only one exhibitor. Steers must have registration papers. Steers will be shown by weight.

Heifers: Must have been born between 9-1-17 and 11-30-18. All purebred heifers must have registration papers in hand at check-in. Heifers will show by age. Heifers without registration papers will show as a crossbred. Heifers can only be shown once in either the market or breeding division. Heifers may be shown in only one breed division by only one exhibitor.

Cattle are not allowed in the barns until Saturday morning ; must stay in tie-outs until then. Tack and generators allowed in the barns on Friday night. Sand will be available in the barns.
