

Barbara Brann is a Senior Business leader, analyst, and project manager experienced in federal and commercial business and information operations focused on developing and implementing program management, requirements elicitation, training, process improvement, management internal controls and employee development with over 30 years experience. Demonstrated expert knowledge of the business lifecycle, human resource administrative laws, policies, regulations, and precedents applicable to the administration of important corporate and public programs, ISO 9000, and ERP's. She is an expert facilitator and instructor for Finance and Human Resource policies. Ms. Brann is a strategic communicator, both oral and written, a strong team player with critical thinking and analysis skills. Self directed and motivated, she has extensive experience working remotely. She has experience managing small business centers, with responsibility for leadership, budget, schedule, and certification of staff and finances with profit and loss responsibility. She is a certified PMP, Certified Trainer for the IRS, a Registered Representative for the Securities and Exchange Commission licensed as a Series 7 & 63 financial analyst, and a graduate of CSC's Management Development Program.