FEB. 9 - MAR. 2, 2024

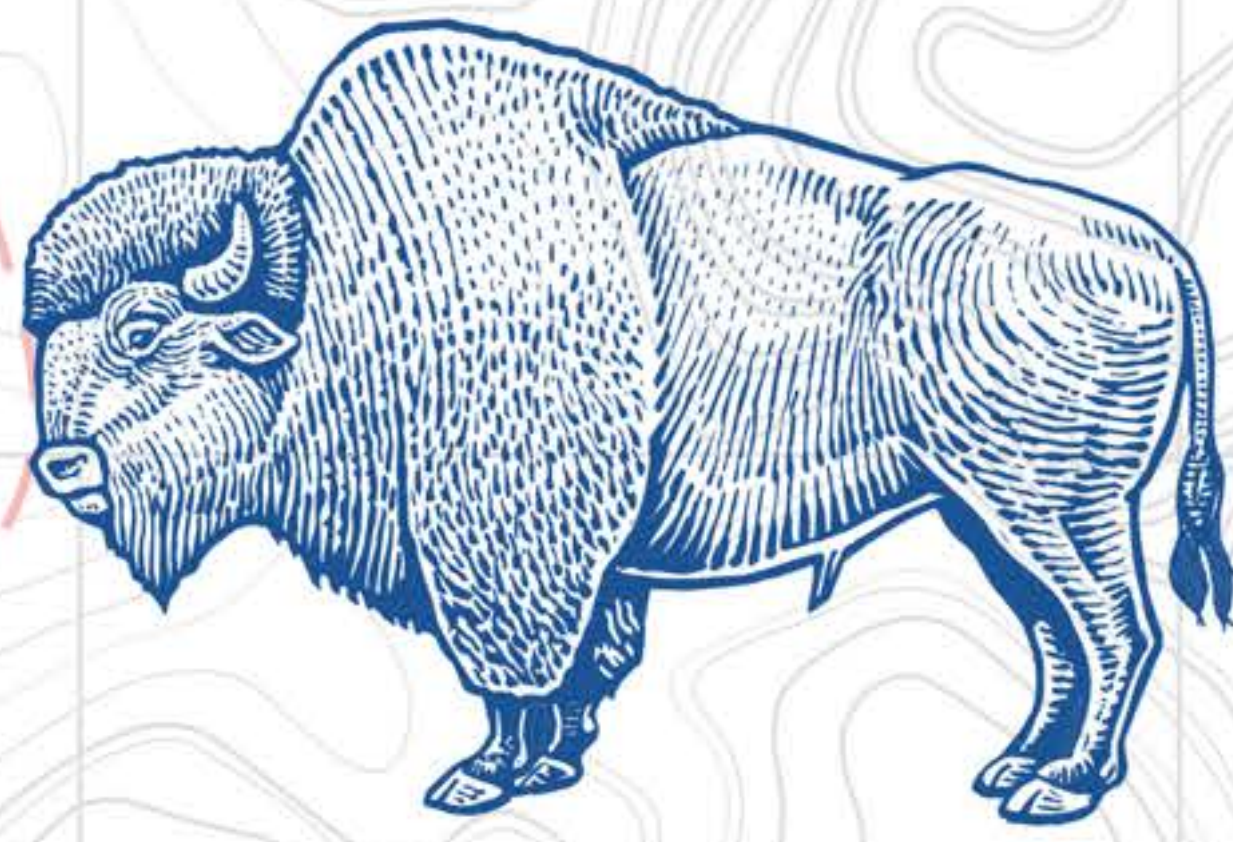

..... DIRECTOR'S NOTE

In 2003 Pixar released a cute little film with fancy new animation and the little clownfish from the reef swam his way into our hearts with his lucky fin. Nemo's craving for adventure and Marlin's nervous parenting were relatable for audiences of all ages. But Disney/Pixar never just leaves us with quotable moments ("Just Keep Swimming!"), but also a deeper theme: that our differences aren't just what makes our communities colorful and diverse, but also what makes them strong. The characters of Finding Nemo are relatable, especially with their allergies, scars, disabilities, and forgetful tendencies. Plus, just like putting together our show, all of the characters in Finding Nemo demonstrate interdependence, working together to reach a goal while using everyone's unique strengths.

Bringing a full ocean to the stage felt like an impossible task and wouldn't have been possible without the support of an entire sea of people! Thank you to the OPPA staff, board, volunteers, parents, and more who made this show possible. We hope that you enjoy our beautiful "Big Blue World" brought to life by our fantastic sea creatures, birds, and of course in true Disney/Pixar fashion: an inanimate object and a human.
