President's Message

By Bob Bryers

Dear IAS Members:

Where did the time go? It seems like only yesterday I was composing my January message to the members of our society –time flies, as they say. It has been a good year and hopefully next year will usher in more of the same. The Holiday Season is in full swing right now, with Christmas and New Year's right around the corner. I have thoroughly enjoyed guiding the Society this past year, and as a result of our elections this past November, it will remain in capable hands with the election of Ellen Dowling as your new president starting in January. I will stay on in the office of vice-president for the Society and will endeavor to help make 2016 a breakout year, one to be remembered.

We will close out 2015 with our annual Christmas Party, which will be on Sunday, December 13th, from 1-5 PM at the German American Club. We have a great line-up of entertainment and events to make that afternoon enjoyable for all. You can read all the details on the front page of this newsletter, and remember—invite your friends and neighbors to come to this exciting event and help make it the success that it has always been in the past.

At this time I will close out this letter by giving my Holiday Greetings and wishes for a safe and enjoyable season to all.

Irish-American Society Member Angus Gallegos Attains Champion Status at Latest Irish Dance Competition

You've seen Angus perform at the German Club, the Celtic Festival, the Brother Mathias Dinner, and other venues around Albuquerque. He is only nine years old and he is the first boy from New Mexico to reach Preliminary Championship status in Irish step dancing. Angus is the second child to reach this level in New Mexico for his age group (the first is Garnet Waldrop who also dances for Tír Conaill).

This past October 17th Angus competed at the Halloween feis in Scottsdale, AZ and won first place in all his dances. This outstanding performance advanced him to the championship level.

When Angus was three years old, he and his family went to the annual Brother Mathias St. Patrick's Day Dinner. He watched the Irish step dancers performing and started dancing alongside the stage. That is when his mom thought to put him in Irish dance lessons when he got old enough. When he was five, he joined the Tír Conaill Academy of Irish Dance. He loves going to class, performing, and practices everywhere. He says he still gets butterflies when he goes on stage, especially in front of the judges, but you wouldn't know it from his performance in Scottsdale.

Angus will be competing at the 2015 Oireachtas in Salt Lake City on November 20th and 21st as a solo competitor and as part of a Ceili team. Last year he placed third in this regional competition. Congratulate him and wish him good luck when you see him at the GAC! His hard work and dedication is impressive for such a young age and he is the perfect ambassador to demonstrate and spread Irish culture around New Mexico. Congratulations, Angus!

There is an open Irish music session every Thursday night at Joliesse Chocolates, on 4th St, Albuquerque, 7-9. All are welcome to participate or just enjoy listening. ### New from Apple Mountain Music! Slow Celtic Session

Tom Tunney, Host. Please join us from 10:00 AM - 12:00 PM on the first Saturday of every month, for a guaranteed SLOW Celtic session. (Fee: Donation.) The tune list will be limited to about a dozen tunes at a time so we can learn them from memory. We will work on how to learn the tunes using recordings and sheet music as well as various resources available online. It's not necessary to know how to read music, but we will spend some time learning that if anyone is interested. All instruments are welcome, but you should be able to play at least at a beginner's level.
