WORLD DAY FOR CONSECRATED LIFE FEBRUARY

2ND The purpose of the day is "to help the entire Church to esteem ever more greatly the witness of those persons who have chosen to follow Christ by means of the practice of the evangelical counsels" as well as "to be a suitable occasion for consecrated persons to renew their commitment and rekindle the fervour which should inspire their offering of themselves to the Lord" (Saint John Paul II, 1997)

We are asking those with palms from last year to please bring them in. A basket has been placed at St. Augustine's main entrance for these. We will burn the palms for Ash Wednesday. Thank you

During Sunday morning liturgy at St. Augustine's, it has become the custom for the children to bring a FOOD OFFERING forward during the collection, This practice continues to greatly assist us in helping those less fortunate. When donating food items, we thought it may be helpful to list some of the items which we have a greater need for; can evaporated milk, elbow macaroni, rotini pasta, can flakes of meat, tuna, can soups and vegetables, macaroni and cheese, yellow onions, carrots and aluminum foil. Please do not go out to purchase these items but watch for them as they frequently are on special at various retailers in the area.
 Lastly, we would like to extend a huge THANK YOU for all donations and your help in this important church mission.

Exploring Our Faith

"This Little Light of Mine..."

When we were children we trooped up to kneel at the communion rail on the Feast of St Blais for the priest to bless our throats with two crossed candles. In Luke's gospel reading we learn of a ritual that is no longer practiced. Today is also Ground Hog Day, recalling what was once the Candle-mas bear. These things led me to reflect on rituals and the rules surrounding them.

Some years ago I was looking after two children, a boy 10 and a girl 12, who were cousins but had little in common. No problem, I thought. Just give them Board games to provide hours of entertainment. (Did I mention we had no electricity there?) They finished the first game in 20 minutes. Without guidance they both cheated on every turn. They had no fun. They were both bored. They both tried to win but they did not actually play the game. Those two children taught me a lot about rules.

Sports add choreographed physical activity to the rules of games, creating a kind of ritual. Each sport has its own rules but in all sports before the game the players must agree to play according to the rules. The point of the game is not to obey the rules but to play together and have fun. Much of the joy of games and sport is finding a time and place where the rules of human interaction is clear and simple.

Life is complicated and laws, rules and rituals exist on many levels: civil, legal, economic, community, club, family, table manners,...etc. The role of religions in life is "to light, to guard, to rule and guide" as the prayer to our guardian angel puts it. When a new light appears in the world, new laws and rituals are needed. Luke, in both his gospel and in Acts tells us about the difficult work of early Christians to reconcile the laws and rituals of Judaism which they grew up with and the new rules and rituals required by their encounter with Christ. Regarding table manners, at one point Paul rebukes Peter for following the law forbidding Jews from eating with Gentiles, even when those Gentiles were Christian. (Acts 11 and Gal 2) There are other areas of difficulty in figuring what new rules are needed to follow the new light they have been given.

Jesus often pointed out that obeying rules is not the purpose of religion, but rather living a life of love is. Sometimes we encounter others who follow a different light, Christian and non-Christian. We have the problem of how to relate to them. Jesus also helps us there. What we call the Golden Rule is not a rule at all. It is a call to look inside to the light within us and to "Treat others the way we would like to be treated."

COMMUNAL CELEBRATION OF THE SACRAMENT OF THE ANOINTING OF THE SICK: It is important that those who are sick and those around them understand the significance of the Anointing of the Sick as a sacrament of healing. Who should celebrate this sacrament? Those who are elderly and whose frailty is becoming more pronounced. Those adults and children who are suffering from a major illness. Illness comes in many different forms; physical, mental, psychological, emotional, and spiritual. Those who are facing or recovering from surgery or serious medical tests. Those suffering from a serious accident. Those who suffer from chronic illness such as arthritis or diabetes. Those who care for the sick, especially those who are closely bound in love to them. Mass and the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will be held at St. Augustine's Church on Tuesday, February 11th at 12:00 noon. Everyone is invited and encouraged to participate in this celebration.
