

MARCH 1ST

FIRST FRIDAY

ART

6:00-8:00 PM

ART EXHIBIT & RECEPTION

This special gallery event is featuring the work of the late James Malady. Most of his extraordinary work was in private collections, but has been gathered for this exhibition. James' work will transport you to the life and love of his Irish and American homelands. Prints will be available. Refreshments will be served. Special guest vendor MacNeill Market will offer a variety of natural bath products for sale. For more info: 570-454-0092.

ENTERTAINMENT

6:30-9:00 PM

LIVE MUSIC

The Third Nut performs live at The Pines Eatery & Spirits (8 W. Broad St.); also Fat Friday Food and Mardi Gras Drink Specials. For reservations: 570-501-0330.

8:00-10:00 PM

STUNT SHOW

The Sanctuary Stunt Studio kicks off SEASON 9 with a free show open to the public (172 N. Wyoming St.). For more info: (570) 262-0636.

SPECIAL EVENTS

6:30-9:00 PM

DOMINICAN INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION & CARNIVAL MASK DISPLAY

Celebrate Dominican Independence (Feb 27th) at Lackawanna College (2 E. Broad St.) with traditional music and Dominican food. Also learn about the annual Carnival traditions and see displays of various Carnival masks. For more info: 914-562-6666.

6:30-9:00 PM

BUSINESS MIXER

Hazleton Hispanic Business Partnership (Sociedad Empresarial Hispana de Hazleton) mixer will be held at Lackawanna College (2 E. Broad St.). Stop by to learn more about this new organization. For more info: 914-562-6666.

For more info: 570-455-1509 or www.downtownhazleton.org