

A Fair Criminal Justice System

Texas Democrats know that everyone should be treated equally under the law.

These days, families have endured in fear, and the politics has gotten heated. We need action, not just words.

That is why policymakers must reform our broken criminal justice system and promote fair community policing policies. The goal is simple: no matter who you are, what you look like, or where you are from, everyone deserves a fair shake.