

Kristine Gunn is living proof of God's ability to take ashes from the past and turn them into beauty. Kristine was born into a family of domestic violence and left motherless at the age of 5 years old.

After surviving enormous childhood obstacles, and an emotionally abusive marriage herself, Kristine found herself scarred, broken, and starting over 17 years ago. Kristine faced the harsh reality of being a single mom with three small children, no job, and no home of her own, Kristine gathered the courage to not only survive, but thrive during those difficult years.

Kristine Gunn is a natural born leader and bold thinker, driven by an unstoppable passion for helping people. Kristine encourages singles to take hold of their dreams and turn their purpose driven dreams into inspiring action!

Whether you're single, married, or somewhere in between, Kristine will relate to you as a spiritually oriented professional, single mom, and friend.

With over 25 years of corporate consulting, speaking, training and mentoring experience, Kristine now focuses her energies on speaking, writing, coaching, and serving men and women who are longing to live a life of purpose, grace and ease.

Kristine will motivate you to reclaim your life because she has walked the same journey. Together, you'll discover all that you are meant to be and there will be no stopping you – no matter what age or stage of life you're in!

Based in Orange County, California, when Kristine isn't speaking and coaching with executive organizations, she is spreading her personal brand of inspiration through coaching, motivational seminars, ministry retreats, and one-on-one sessions with clients. Find her website at KristineGunn.com.
