

Jeri's President Challenge 2019

Rainbow of Colors

Judging will be on October 14th. Members may join the challenge through the September 23rd meeting. Jeri will provide the fabric at the meeting.

Participants will select a bag that contains a fat quarter and will create a quilted item that incorporates the fabric.

Rules

- Entries may be no bigger than 50" wide and 60" in long
- Entries may be table runners, place mats, or any type of wall hanging
- Entries must be quilted.
- NO purses or pillows.
- A scrap of the fat quarter must be pinned to back of project so members can see the fat quarter used in project.
- First and second prizes will be awarded. (Actual prize to be determined later).

Judging

On the due date (October 14th), each participant will bring their entry in a brown paper bag. Each member will hand their bag to the challenge coordinator who will then take the entry out of the bag and lay it on a viewing table. Members will judge the entries via a paper ballot vote.
