Dear Client:

This letter will confirm our understanding of the terms and objectives for the preparation of your income tax returns for the year 2018. We will prepare your income tax returns based on information submitted by you. You represent that the information you supply is accurate and complete to the best of your knowledge, and that you have disclosed all relevant facts affecting your returns. We will not audit or verify the information you provide, although we might ask for additional clarification.

Please review the enclosed tax preparation materials. When submitting your 2018 tax information, complete and include this tax information packet. Be sure to complete the following: basic taxpayer information, general questions and business/investment questions. The listing on page 5 is to assist you in accumulating your tax information. Remember, this is only a guide. Should you have any questions concerning your tax information, make a note of them and we will call you to discuss when preparing your income tax return. We will be filing all tax returns electronically (E-FILE). In addition, all copies of returns will be given on a CD (pdf file), unless a paper copy is specifically requested.

You will be notified once your return is ready to be electronically filed. At that time, it will be necessary for you to come in, sign and return the E-FILE form(s), and pay for your return, we will then E-FILE the return. You will receive the copy of your return and tax documents on a CD. If you are to receive a refund, you may choose to have the funds deposited directly to your bank account or have them sent to you in check form. If the refund is electronically deposited into your bank account, it normally takes about two weeks after the acceptance of the submission of your return. Mailed refunds usually take a few days longer. If you have a tax liability on your return, you will receive a voucher that will need to be mailed in with a payment. If your tax situation requires, you will also receive tax estimates for the next year in paper form.

If there are no changes to your tax situation from the prior year, we request that you drop off your information, and we will call or email you with any questions regarding your return. If you need to discuss new tax situations, please call for an appointment.

All tax information must be received no later than April 5th or an additional $75 fee will be charged for priority processing. The last day for tax appointments will be April 1, 2019. All returns received after this date will be automatically extended and prepared after April 16, 2019. An additional fee of $80 will be charged for extension processing. You will be responsible for determining any amount that may be due with the extension. We will not be responsible for late payment penalties and interest owed, due to late filing and payment.

Tax return fees are based upon our hours incurred at our professional billing rates which range from $45 to $230 per hour. In addition, we charge a $45 administration fee. Any appointments canceled on the same day of the appointment will be billed $50. All missed appointments will be billed $75.

You have the final responsibility for your income tax returns. You should review your returns carefully to fully acquaint yourself with all items to ensure that there are no material omissions or misstatements.

We will use our professional judgment in resolving questions where the law is unclear, or where there are conflicts between the interpretation of the law by tax authorities and other supportable positions. Unless otherwise instructed by you, we resolve such questions in your favor whenever possible, as long as there is reasonable justification for doing so.

Our work in connection with the preparation of your returns does not include any procedures designed to discover defalcations or other irregularities, should any exist.

CHARITABLE CONTRIBUTIONS: In the event your return includes charitable contributions, you must have written substantiation from the charitable organization. This written acknowledgement must contain 1) the amount of money contributed and a description (but not value) of any property donated and 2) if any goods or services were received in exchange for the contribution. If you did receive goods or services, a description and estimate of the value must be included. We are required to verify a receipt for all contributions that are in excess of $250. This applies to both an individual amount given or total given to a particular organization in a given year.

TRAVEL, MEALS & GIFTS: The law disallows an otherwise allowable deduction for any expense for traveling (including meals and lodging), gifts, or listed property [e.g., passenger vehicles], unless the expense is substantiated by adequate records or by sufficient evidence corroborating your own statements. In addition, the regulations generally require you to maintain documentary evidence (such as receipts, paid bills, etc.) for any lodging expenditure and other expenditure. For business travel, the documentation should include the amount, date, place and business purposes of the travel. For business gifts, the documentation should include the amount, date, description of gift, business purpose of gift, and business relationship of recipient of the gift. For listed property, the documentation should include the amount (e.g., cost), business or investment use based on mileage, etc., date of the expenditure, and business or investment purpose of the property.

PRIOR YEARS: If, during our work, we discover information that affects your prior-year tax returns, we will discuss this with you. However, we cannot be responsible for identifying all items that may affect prior years. If you become aware of such information during the year, please contact us to discuss the best resolution of the issue. In order that we may properly advise you of tax considerations, please keep us informed of any significant changes in your financial affairs or of any correspondence received from taxing authorities.

PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS: In the event Dennis Rose & Associates, P.C. (DRA) is requested or authorized by you or is required by government regulation, subpoena, or other legal process to produce its documents or its personnel as witness with respect to its engagement for you, you will, so long as DRA is not a party to the proceeding in which the information is sought, reimburse DRA for its professional time at its standard rates and its expenses, as well as the fees and expenses of its counsel, incurred in responding to such request. In the event that we receive a summons or subpoena requesting that we produce documents from this engagement or testify about this engagement, we will notify you prior to responding to it if we are legally permitted to do so. You may, within the time permitted for DRA to respond to any request, initiate such legal action as you deem appropriate to protect information from discovery. If you take no action within the time permitted for us to respond, or if your action does not result in a judicial order protecting us from supplying requested information, we may construe your inaction or failure as consent to comply with the request.

RECORD RETENTION: Your returns are subject to examination by the taxing authorities. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of an audit, you may be requested to produce documents, records, or other evidence to substantiate the items of income and deduction shown on your returns. It is our policy to keep records related to a tax engagement for seven years, after which they are destroyed. We provide complete copies of returns, either electronically or on paper, for your records, along with any materials you furnished for our use. It is your responsibility to retain and protect your records for possible future use. You should retain all the documents, cancelled checks and other data that form the basis of income and deductions. These may be necessary to prove the accuracy and completeness of the returns to a taxing authority. We recommend that you retain all pertinent records for at least seven years after filing. If an examination occurs, we will represent you if you so desire; however, these additional services are not included in our fee for preparation of your returns.

COMMUNICATION: In the interest of facilitating our services to you, we may communicate by facsimile transmission or send electronic mail over the Internet. Such communications may include information that is confidential to you. While we will use our best efforts to keep such communications secure in accordance with our obligations under applicable laws and professional standards, you recognize and accept that we have no control over the unauthorized interception of these communications once they have been sent and consent to our use of these electronic devices during this engagement. Therefore, we specifically disclaim and waive any liability or responsibility whatsoever for interception or unintentional disclosure of emails transmitted by us in connection with the performance of this engagement. In that regard, you agree that we shall have no liability for any loss or damage to any person or entity resulting from the use of email transmissions, including any consequential, incidental, indirect, or special damages, such as loss of revenues or anticipated profits, or disclosure or communication of confidential or proprietary information. To keep your information secure, we will password protect any document containing your social security number or other personal information which we send via email. To protect yourself, we also advise that you do the same when submitting anything to us via email.

PRIVACY: DRA is committed to protecting your financial privacy. We restrict access to nonpublic personal information to employees and contractors of DRA who need to know that information to provide the best service to you. We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our clients or former clients to anyone, except as permitted by law.

Certain communications involving tax advice may be privileged and not subject to disclosure to the IRS. By disclosing the contents of those communications to anyone, or by turning over information about those communications to the government, you may be waiving this privilege. To protect this right to privileged communication, please consult with us or your attorney prior to disclosing any information about our tax advice.

PAYMENT OF FEES: Our fees will be at our standard hourly rates ($45 - $230 per hour). Our invoice for fees will be rendered upon completion of your returns and is payable on presentation. All unpaid invoices or returned drafts will be assessed cumulative monthly billing and administrative charges of 1.5% per month, plus collection costs and attorney's fees, if required.

LIABILITY: In recognition of the relative risks and benefits of this agreement to both you and DRA, both parties have discussed and have agreed on the fair allocation of risk between them. As such, you agree, to the fullest extent permitted by law, to limit the liability of DRA and its past, present and future shareholders and other personnel (collectively the "Indemnified Persons") to you for any and all claims, losses, costs, and damages of any nature whatsoever, so that the total aggregate liability of DRA to you shall not exceed DRA's total fee for services rendered under this agreement. You and DRA intend and agree that this limitation applies to any and all liability or cause of action against DRA, however alleged or arising, unless otherwise prohibited by law. Such causes include but are not limited to negligence, errors, omissions, strict liability, breach of contract and breach of warranty. Indemnified Persons shall not be liable for any special, incidental or punitive loss or consequential damages or expenses under any legal theory arising out of the agreement or the services to be performed hereunder. Both parties agree that there is a one-year limitation period to bring a claim against DRA for errors and omissions. The one-year period will begin upon the date DRA completes your income tax returns.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION: To resolve any controversy or claim ("Dispute") pertaining to the Agreement, a Dispute shall be first submitted to mediation by written notice to the other party or parties before resorting to arbitration. A mediator will be selected by agreement of the parties, the parties will try to resolve their differences voluntarily and facilitate negotiations under the Commercial Mediation Rules of the American Arbitration Association (AAA). The mediation will be treated as a settlement discussion and therefore will be confidential. If a dispute has not been resolved within 90 days after the written notice beginning the mediation process, the mediation shall terminate and the dispute will be settled by arbitration conducted in accordance with the procedures in this document and the Arbitration rules for Professional Accounting and Related Services Disputes of the AAA as in effect on the date of this Agreement ("AAA Rules"). The arbitrators may not award non-monetary or equitable relief of any sort. They shall have no power to award punitive damages, or any other damages not measured by the prevailing party's actual damages, and the parties expressly waive their right to obtain such damages in arbitration or in any other forum. In no event, even if any other portion of these provisions is held to be invalid or unenforceable, shall the arbitrators have the power to make an award or impose a remedy that could not be made or imposed by a court deciding the matter in the same jurisdiction. All aspects of the arbitration shall be treated as confidential. The result of the arbitration will be binding on the parties, and judgment on the arbitrators' award may be entered in any court having jurisdiction.

In the unlikely event that circumstances occur which we, in our sole discretion, believe could create a conflict with either the ethical standards of DRA or the ethical standards of our profession in continuing our engagement, we may suspend our services until a satisfactory resolution can be achieved, or we may resign from the engagement without producing returns. We will notify you of such conflicts as soon as practicable, and will discuss with you any possible means of resolving them prior to suspending our services.

SEVERABILITY: If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the remaining provisions shall continue to be valid and enforceable. If a court finds that any provision of this Agreement is invalid or unenforceable, but that by limiting such provision it would become valid and enforceable, then such provision shall be deemed to be written, construed, and enforced as so limited.

ASSIGNMENT: This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective heirs, representatives, successors and permitted assigns. This Agreement may not be voluntarily assigned in whole or part by either party without prior written notification to the other.

GENERAL: Our services shall be governed by the laws of the State of Illinois.

We appreciate the opportunity to serve you and look forward to a long and successful relationship. Our ability to exceed your expectations is dependent on good communication, and to this extent we encourage your questions and inquiries. With a goal of growing our client base which allows us to expand the services we offer, your referrals are always appreciated.

Your signature below indicates your agreement that the above adequately summarizes our mutual responsibilities and that the information you provided is complete and correct to the best of your knowledge.

Very truly yours,
