Boise is called “The City of Trees” There is an abundance of activities for all ages. If you like to hike, bike, fish, hunt, golf, take in a Broadway Play or watch College sports, Boise has it all. From the 25-mile green belt bike path, to Lucky Peak Reservoir for water activities, Bogus Basin Ski Resort, Ann Morrison Center for entertainment. The most popular tourist attractions are the Idaho Botanical Garden, The World Center for Birds of Prey, The Capitol Building, and the many parks that border the Boise River. The downtown Boise Saturday Farmers Market is a great experience if you have the time. It runs June-December 10am to 1pm. Please visit the link below and find out why Idaho is called the Gem State. <https://visitidaho.org/>

We are excited to be hosting the Rocky Mountain District Rose Show and look forward to meeting everyone! We hope you enjoy your stay in Boise, ID. You might want to arrive early on Thursday and enjoy a few sights before the hustle and bustle of the show.
