A MESSAGE FROM WALK #152 LAY DIRECTOR

It's the wax. It's always the wax. When people find out that you have gone on a Walk to Emmaus, they always ask you what your favorite part was. For me, it has always been the wax. The wax on the chapel floor when the sounds of cars have faded into the background, and we are sitting by ourselves, and thanking God for giving us just a little glimpse into heaven. The splatters of wax speak of sacrifice. Sacrifice of time, travel, expense. But what it always tells us is that there is a loving community that surrounds us and just wanted to come and tell us that Jesus loves us. How beautiful to be a part of the Body of Christ!

I can also attest that holding the wax candle is one of the biggest blessings that one could ever experience. But I am also blessed by cooking grits, laying agape, writing letters, praying in the chapel, setting up chairs, arranging worship, serving dinner, preparing refreshments, making beds, and handing out carnations. I invite everyone to come and share in the blessing of the Walk to Emmaus this week. The ladies of Walk 152 are anxious to hear that they are loved, but also to be shown that they are loved. You never know, it might be the wax for you or it might be something else. Will you join us to find out?

Shay Baugh

A MESSAGE FROM WALK #152 SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR

On a warm, humid Saturday night in a lakeside parking lot after a Chrysalis candlelight ceremony, I heard a familiar voice call out "Shuck". I turned around and saw the Lay Director's seventeen year-old daughter, a neighbor, whom I have known her life. Shannon's family always called me "Shuck" since she was a child because it is easier to say than Charles or Chuck.

I had served that weekend as an assistant spiritual director on the flight, which her father was the lay director. I was hurriedly and impatiently leaving Blue Lake for Auburn knowing all my responsibilities for the next day—just hours away. In Shannon's hand was a Chrysalis cross on a woven necklace.

When Shannon was in the Speaker's Prayer Chapel praying for me before my talk, she noticed I did not have a cross. Knowing me so well and loving me just as I am, Shannon informed me in no uncertain terms that I needed a cross. Knowing her so well and loving her just as she is, I informed her I had lost my original Emmaus cross and she would just have to deal with it.

Beside my truck in the parking lot Shannon held out the cross and said, "Shuck, I made this Chrysalis cross for you." It was one of those moments God uses to humble me. "Thank you Shannon," I uttered. I reached for the cross and attempted to give her a hug at the same time. Shannon said, "Wait!! You have to do it right." I must have looked confused, but I knew from many shared past experiences with Shannon that I was going to receive this cross however she thought best. Shannon stood on her tiptoes, placed the cross over my head and around my neck and with a strong voice declared, "Christ is counting on you!" "And I am counting on Christ!" I answered.

Of all the Emmaus/Chrysalis Cross Ceremonies I have attended, this one was the most special. Without an audience, Table, or community present, those words sank in to my heart like never before. As the Body of Christ we know Christ is counting on us. In our own humanness we know we must count on Christ. As Shannon said, "You have to do it right."

DeColores,

Charles Cummings
