LSSD Gets Fresh Start

By Kitty Mayo

In January 2019 three newly elected school board members will join the Lake Superior School District #381, with one member returning for another term.

Tom Burns will be returning for his third full term on the school board representing the city of Two Harbors. Burns has been a resident of Two Harbors for almost 30 years, and is a registered nurse.

Tracy Tiboni was elected to represent Beaver Bay, Finland and Fall Lake and is an active volunteer on other boards in the community. Employed at North Shore Credit Union in Silver Bay, Tiboni has served in the past as the clerk of the Beaver Bay Township.

Steve VanHouse will be representing the city of Silver Bay as a school board member. A local business owner and lifelong resident of Silver Bay, VanHouse has served on the school board previously from 1990 to 2002, a total of 12 years.

Dean Korri accepted the position as a board member representing Alden Township and the St. Louis County area of the district. No one had filed for the seat in District 7, but Korri received 86 write-in votes during the election. A resident of Knife River for the past 12 years, Korri works for Cleveland-Cliffs, and also serves on the North Shore Sewer Board.
