

Miller, Casper

Our father, Casper J. Miller, 83, went home to be with his Lord on Thursday evening, Feb. 24, 2000, after a one-year illness. God looked around his garden and found an empty place. He then looked down on the earth and saw your tired face. He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest. It broke our hearts to lose you but you didn't go alone. For part of us went with you the day God called you home. He was born Jan. 17, 1917, in Chicago, Ill., son of the late Casper and Dorothy (Eurich) Miller. He was united in marriage to Lorene L. Hartz on June 12, 1948, in Port Hope. Casper was employed at the Sebewaing Light and Water Department for 22 years before retiring in 1979. He also was a commercial fisherman for many years. He served in the U.S. Army in the medical corps during World War II. He was a member of the Immanuel Lutheran Church in Sebewaing. Surviving are his wife, Lorene L. Miller of Sebewaing; four daughters, two sons and spouses, Carol Krenz and her husband, Robert, of Reese, Larry Miller of Bay City, Connie Green and her husband, Gregory, of Detroit, Lynn Miller of Ontario, Calif., Sheila Miller of Philadelphia, Pa., and Christopher Miller of Royal Oak; four grandchildren; two sisters, one brother and their spouses, Elizabeth Eichinger and her husband, Herbert, of Bay City, Katherine Bowns of Saginaw, and David Miller and his wife, Frances, of Chicago, Ill.; and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by a brother, Fred Miller; and three sisters, infant Mary Miller, Ann Clauss and Dorothy Wildman. Funeral services will take place at 2 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 27, 2000, at the Dinkel-Juengel Funeral Home in Sebewaing. The Rev. Charles Kuhl will officiate with burial in the Immanuel Lutheran Cemetery.
