

SECURITY OFFICER HANDBOOK

Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services

Adam H. Putnam, Commissioner

Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services

A message from the Commissioner:

The primary responsibility of a licensed security officer is to protect the property and personal safety of others. Because licensed security officers serve in positions of public trust, it is important that only qualified and properly trained individuals are licensed as security officers and that the business practices of the security industry as a whole are consistent with the public good.

The Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services has the statutory responsibility under Chapter 493, Florida Statutes, of regulating the security industry. In carrying out this responsibility, the department's objective is to promote public safety by ensuring that individuals and agencies comply with the law.

Knowledge of the law is essential to compliance. Therefore, the department provides this handbook to assist those of you who work in the security industry in gaining a basic understanding of the fundamental requirements of Chapter 493. I hope this publication will prove to be a source of helpful guidance to you.

Sincerely,

Adam H. Putnam
Commissioner

Section 493.6115(9), F.S.

VI. FIREARMS TRAINING

a. WHEN YOU FIRST APPLY FOR A CLASS "G" LICENSE:

In order to qualify for the Class "G" license, you must successfully complete 28 hours of range and classroom training pertaining to the use of firearms in connection with duties regulated under Chapter 493, Florida Statutes. The training must be obtained from a licensed Class “K” Firearms Instructor within the preceding 12 months. The 28 hour-course curriculum and the time that should be devoted to each of the subject areas included in the curriculum are indicated on the below. Note that the law stipulates that no more than eight hours of the training shall consist of range training.

LEGAL ASPECTS OF USE OF FIREARMS 12 HOURS

This section of the course covers applicable portions of Chapters 493, 775, 776, and 790, Florida Statutes, as well as civil and criminal liability issues in connection with the use of firearms.

OPERATIONAL FIREARMS SAFETY AND FIREARMS MECHANICAL TRAINING 8 HOURS

This portion of the curriculum is intended to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the mechanical operations of a firearm and how to handle firearms safely. A written examination of 100 questions will be administered covering the portions of the curriculum dealing with legal use and operational/mechanical training.

FIREARMS QUALIFICATION 8 HOURS

This segment of the training course includes practical exercises in the handling of firearms – stance, grip, sighting, etc. – as well as topics pertaining to range safety and range commands. The instructor will require students to fire 144 rounds as part of the firearms qualification for initial licensure (48 rounds of practice fire +2 cycles of 48 rounds for initial qualification). No more than eight hours of the 28 hours of training shall consist of range training.

*A Class “K” instructor can at his or her discretion administer as few as 5 hours of range qualification training if the student(s) demonstrates sufficient mastery of the core principles of safe firearms handling (to include shooting a qualifying score) without the full eight hours of range training. However, reducing the number of hours of range training will require teaching additional hours elsewhere in the curriculum so that the cumulative total of firearms training amounts to 28 hours as required by s. 493.6105(5), F.S.

ACCEPTABLE ALTERNATIVES FOR THE 28 HOURS OF RANGE AND CLASSROOM TRAINING

1. Proof that you are currently certified as a law enforcement officer or correctional officer pursuant to the requirements of the Criminal Justice Standards and Training Commission or have successfully completed the training required for certification within the last 12 months.
2. Proof that you are currently certified as a federal law enforcement officer and have received law enforcement firearms training administered by a federal law enforcement agency.
3. Proof that you qualify for a Class “K” Firearms Instructor License in accordance with the requirements set forth in Section 493.6105(6)(a), F.S.

Section 493.6105(5), F.S.

Section 493.6115(7), F.S.

b. WHEN YOU RENEW A CLASS “G” LICENSE:

1. Each Class “G” licensee must submit proof that he or she has received during each year of the license period a minimum of 4 hours of firearms recertification training taught by a Class “K” licensee.
2. License holders will be required to achieve a passing score on a cycle of fire consisting of 48 rounds. If the license holder fails to achieve a passing score after three attempts, he or she will be instructed to seek additional remedial training and schedule another requalification attempt at a later date.

3. Proof of completion of firearms recertification training must be submitted to the department upon completion of the training. If the licensee fails to complete the required 4 hours of annual training during the first year of the 2-year term of the license, the license is automatically suspended. The licensee must complete the minimum number of hours of range and classroom training required at the time of initial licensure and submit proof of completion of such training to the department before the license may be reinstated. If the licensee fails to complete the required 4 hours of annual training during the second year of the 2-year term of the license, the licensee must complete the minimum number of hours of range and classroom training required at the time of initial licensure and submit proof of completion of such training to the department before the license may be renewed. The department may waive the firearms training requirement if:

- The applicant provides proof that he or she is currently certified as a law enforcement officer or correctional officer under the Criminal Justice Standards and Training Commission and has completed law enforcement firearms requalification training annually during the previous 2 years of the licensure period;
- The applicant provides proof that he or she is currently certified as a federal law enforcement officer and has received law enforcement firearms training administered by a federal law enforcement agency annually during the previous 2 years of the licensure period; or
- The applicant submits a valid firearm certificate among those specified in s. 493.6105(6)(a) and provides proof of having completed requalification training during the previous 2 years of the licensure period.

a. Example: A licensee who is issued his Class “G” license on July 1, 2013, which expires June 30, 2015, must receive four (4) hours of firearms recertification training between July 1, 2013, and June 30, 2014, and four (4) hours between July 1, 2014, and June 30, 2015. Proof of completion of firearms recertification training must be submitted to the department upon completion of the training.

Section 493.6113(3)(b), F.S.

VII. USE OF FORCE

a. Licensed security officers are not law enforcement officers and are not granted any police powers regarding arrest or use of force.

Section 493.6118(1)(i), F.S.

b. Deadly force may never be used by a security officer except in self-defense or defense of another from imminent death or great bodily harm. The use of deadly force to protect property or to prevent property loss is prohibited by law.

Section 776.012, F.S.

c. Non-deadly force may be used by a security officer to the extent necessary for self-defense or defense of another against the use of unlawful force or to prevent or terminate trespass or “interference” with property the security officer has a legal duty to protect.

Section 776.031, F.S.

d. Security officers in the employ of, or contracted with, retail establishments, who have probable cause to believe that retail theft has occurred, have specific statutory authority to detain shoplifting suspects until law enforcement can respond to make an arrest. Law enforcement must be called to the scene immediately.

Section 812.015(3)(a), F.S.

e. A security officer or security agency manager who is on duty, in uniform, and on the premises of a critical infrastructure facility, and who has probable cause to believe that a person has committed or is committing a crime against the client operating the premises or the client's patron may temporarily detain the person to ascertain his or her identity and the circumstances of the person's activity.

The security officer or security agency manager must notify the appropriate law enforcement agency of the detention as soon as reasonably possible.

A security officer or security agency manager may temporarily detain a person only until a law enforcement officer arrives at the premises of the client and is in the presence of the detainee.

For complete information regarding this topic, see s. 493.631, Florida Statutes.

Sections 493.631, F.S.

f. Firing a warning shot for any reason, including an attempt to stop a person suspected of the commission of a crime, is prohibited.

Sections 493.6118(1)(f) and (j), F.S.

VIII. UNIFORMS AND IDENTIFICATION CARDS

a. A "uniform" is any distinctive clothing intended to identify the individual wearing it as a member of a specific group or an employee of a specific company or agency.

Example: Security officers at a resort are in "uniform" when they wear yellow knit shirts and white shorts during the day and navy blazers with grey slacks after dark.

b. The Class "D" Security Officer must perform his or her duties in a uniform that has at least one patch or emblem visible at all times clearly identifying the employing agency.

Example: Security officers in standard uniforms must display a patch or nametag, which contains the agency name in an easily readable form. Displaying only a badge containing the agency name is not sufficient.

Example: The agency employing the security officers working at the resort displayed the agency name on both “uniforms” described above by printing the agency name on the knit shirts and by affixing the agency patch to the blazer breast pockets.

Section 493.6305(1), F.S.

c. Class “D” Security Officers may perform their duties in plain-clothes status on a limited special assignment basis, and only when duty circumstances or special requirements of the client necessitate such dress. A Class “D” Security Officer who also possesses a Class “G” Statewide Firearm License and who is temporarily performing duties in plain-clothes may carry his or her firearm concealed. Limited special assignments are determined by the licensed agency management within the guidelines provided herein.

“Limited special assignment basis” is defined as non-routine, temporary duty limited to a few days in duration.

Example: A licensed security agency providing uniformed security personnel to an industrial plant temporarily assigns plain-clothes security personnel for a 3-day period to perform personal security functions for the plant manager after the manager receives a threat.

Sections 493.6305(2), and (3), F.S.

d. Class “D” licensees who are also Class “G” licensees and who are performing bodyguard or executive protection services may carry their authorized firearm concealed while in nonuniform as needed in the conduct of such services.

e. Identification Card

Every agency must furnish to its partners, principal corporate officers, and all licensed employees, an identification card bearing the name and license number of the holder of the card and the name and license number of the agency. The identification card must be signed by the individual licensee and a representative of the agency. The identification card must be in the possession of the licensee while on duty.

Section 493.6111(5), F.S.

Failure to return company-owned equipment (uniforms, firearms, agency identification card, etc.) to the employer upon termination of employment is considered misconduct.

Section 493.6305(1), F.S.

IX. INSURANCE REQUIREMENTS

a. A Class “B” Security Agency must have not less than $300,000 commercial general liability coverage for death, bodily injury, property damage and personal injury. Insurance must include coverage for the activities of all licensed persons under the operational guidance and direction of the licensed agency.

Section 493.6110, F.S.

b. The security agency must notify the Division of any and all claims filed against the insurance.

Section 493.6110(1), F.S.

c. The agency must notify the Division of cancellation of coverage. Automatic suspension of the agency license occurs upon the date of expiration or cancellation unless evidence of continued insurance is provided.

Sections 493.6110(2) and (3), F.S.

Any person applying for a license must be at least eighteen (18) years of age; have no disqualifying criminal history; be of good moral character; have no history of mental illness or history of use of illegal drugs or alcoholism, unless evidence is presented showing successful completion of a rehabilitation

Section 493.6106(1), F.S.

The applicant must provide the following: name, date of birth, Social Security number*, place of birth, a statement of all criminal convictions (including dispositions of adjudication withheld), a statement whether he or she has been adjudicated incapacitated or committed to a mental institution, a statement regarding any history of illegal drug use or alcohol abuse, one (1) full-face color photograph, a full set of prints on the division's fingerprint card or submitted electronically via LiveScan, a personal inquiry waiver and the appropriate fees.

*Sections 493.6105, 493.6304, and 493.6406, Florida Statutes (F. S.), in conjunction with section 119.071(5) (a) 2, F. S., mandates that the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, Division of Licensing, obtain social security numbers from applicants. Applicant social security numbers are maintained and used by the Division of Licensing for identification purposes, to prevent misidentification, and to facilitate the approval process by the Division. The Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, Division of Licensing, will not disclose an applicant's social security number without consent of the applicant to anyone outside of the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, Division of Licensing, or as required by law. [See Chapter 119, F. S., 15 U.S.C. ss. 1681 et seq., 15 U.S.C. ss. 6801 et seq., 18 U.S.C. ss. 2721 et seq., Pub. L. No. 107-56 (USA Patriot Act of 2001), and Presidential Executive Order 13224.]

Section 493.6105(3), and (4), F.S.

b. Any non-U.S. citizen who applies for a license under Chapter 493 must submit proof of current employment authorization issued by the U. S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS).

Title 18, U.S. Code, Section 922, imposes greater standards for non-U.S. citizens to carry firearms. To assure compliance with this section, any non-U.S. citizen who applies for a Class “G” Statewide Firearm License or a Class “K” Firearms Instructor License must submit a legible copy of the front and back of his or her valid permanent resident alien card issued by the USCIS (USCIS form I-551) and proof that he or she has resided in the state of residence as shown on the application for at least ninety (90) consecutive days prior to the date the application is submitted. The Division of Licensing will accept copies of utility bills, credit card statements, insurance invoices, or other similar documentation that includes the applicant’s name and address as proof of the ninety (90)-day minimum residency requirement.

Section 493.6106(1)(f), F.S.

c. A criminal history record check is performed by the Florida Department of Law Enforcement and Federal Bureau of Investigation via examination of the applicant’s fingerprints. The results of the record check are provided to the Division of Licensing to determine if the applicant has disqualifying criminal history.

Section 493.6108(1), F.S.

d. The licensee is required to notify the Division of Licensing within 10 days of a change to his or her residence and/or mailing address.

Section 493.6106(3), F.S.

XI. CANCELLATION/INACTIVATION OF LICENSE

a. In the event the licensee desires to cancel his or her license, he or she shall notify the department in writing and return the license to the department within ten (10) days of the date of cancellation.

b. The department may place a licensee’s license in an inactive status at the written request of the licensee. A license may remain inactive for a period of three (3) years, at the end of which time, if the license has not been renewed, it will be automatically canceled. If the license expires during the inactive period, the licensee must pay any license fees incurred during the inactive period and, if applicable, show proof of insurance or proof of firearms training before the license can be made active. Late fees are not incurred while a license is in an inactive status. Insurance does not have to be in force while the license is in an inactive status.

Section 493.6114, F.S.

XII. AGENCY ADVERTISEMENTS REQUIRE LICENSE NUMBER

A licensed agency must include its agency license number in any advertisement in any print medium or directory, and must include its agency license number in any written bid or offer to provide services.

Example: An agency's license number must be included in bids, Yellow Page listings, trade journals, etc. Employment advertising does not require the agency license number.

Section 493.6111(6), F.S.

XIII. USE OF STATE SEAL PROHIBITED

Licensees may not use the Great Seal of the State of Florida or any part thereof on any badge, patch, credentials, identification cards, correspondence, advertisements, business cards, or any other means of identification used in connection with private security services.

XIV. OTHER PROHIBITED ACTS

a. Fraud or willful misrepresentation in applying for or obtaining a license.

Section 493.6118(1)(a), F.S.

b. No agency licensee may conduct activities regulated under this chapter under any fictitious name without prior written authorization from the Division of Licensing to use that name in the conduct of activities regulated under this chapter. The Division may not authorize the use of a name so similar to that of a public officer or agency, or of that used by another licensee, that the public may be confused or misled thereby.

Section 493.6118(1)(b), F.S.
