Missionary Moments

WEEK OF FEBRUARY 19, 2017

Morning: Conversation about the Gospel

[South Asia] Rabia, an 18-year-old woman in Pakistan, told a Christian worker that her husband and her in-laws had left her. She is a mother of two and completely destitute. She considers giving her newborn to someone who can care for her. Rabia's hopeless story led to a conversation about the gospel and the loving care of our Father God. None of her pain or injustice happens without His knowledge. Jesus knows the plight of Rabia and her children, and He came into this sinful, broken world to offer hope. Pray for God's mercy on Rabia and that gifts through the Cooperative Program give families in Pakistan the chance to know the hope of Jesus.

Evening: Doing Life Together in New Mexico

[New Mexico] To understand why CODY BROWN named the church plant he started in Portales, N.M., The Porch, one would have to understand the city. He says the city has many wonderful nights that lend themselves to sitting on the front porch, hanging out with folks, sharing with one another and doing life together. Cody's vision is that the people of The Porch would invest in people, do life together and share with others about Jesus. Thanks to your gifts through the Cooperative Program, Cody is starting a church in a community that needs one. Pray that Cody and his family won't get discouraged as they deal with the ups and downs of ministry.
