A Note from Rick: Slaughter cattle were slightly lower, but held up there better than I expected considering the significantly lower market on the Board of Trade over the past week. It looks to me like we've seen the best of this market, at least for the next couple months. Slaughter cows were steady to a little higher and continue to show strength. The bull calf market bounced back very strong this week, which was nice to see. Both dairy heifers and feeder steers were unchanged for the most part. We had a good turnout for the Pony Sale last Friday and are looking forward to our Driving Horse and Buggy Sale on July 6th. We have not been around for the 4th of July festivities in Topeka yet and are looking forward to the town festival. We are hosting the horse pull outside where we had our Dutch Cross Classic a few weeks ago. Our restaurant and snack bar will be open on the 4th. The demolition project is happening fast and we are getting ready to start construction on the new arena. The office is coming along nicely and we should be able to move in sometime in July. Summer is flying by and Fall will be here before we know it. It's a busy place, and I wouldn't want it any other way! See you at TLA!
