

Al Bailey of Cedar Rapids Wins Golf Tourney

It took four extra holes to decide the winner of the annual West Liberty golf tourney. Finally on the fourth extra hole Bailey won with four strokes while Proffit had five and Iverson six.

The regular 27 hole match finished with Al Bailey, Craig Proffit and Bill Iverson each having 107. Intermittent rain slowed the play all day and it was nearing dusk when the play-off started.
