Association for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Issues in Counseling

What is ALGBTIC?

Association for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Transgender Issues in Counseling counseling professionals converge, regardless of sexual orientation and gender identity, and expression, and collaboratively address the issues associated with serving lesbian, gay, bisexual, other sexual minority, and transgender clients. Counselors who actively seek to increase their knowledge, communication skills and counseling proficiency with clients will find ALGBTIC membership invaluable. Additionally, ALGBTIC provides an affirming environment for lesbian, gay, bisexual, other sexual minority, transgender, and ally counselors to address professional issues. For more information visit: www.algbtic.org.

ALGBTIC is dedicated to:

- Elevating the level and quality of direct services by fostering education and training for counselors about positive identity development and other issues related to serving lesbian, gay, bisexual, other sexual minority, and transgender clients.
- Serving as an expert and professional resource on issues affecting counseling and research with lesbian, gay, bisexual, other sexual minority, and transgender client populations.
- Fostering sensitivity and proficiency among practitioners working with sexual orientation and gender identity and expression issues in counseling.
- Enhancing the professional environment by reducing stereotypical thinking, homophobia and transphobia in counseling practice and policy.

Who Joins ALGBTIC?

Professionals and interested others dedicated to enhancing awareness, efficacy and ethical practices within the counseling profession as pertains to this client population.

Benefits of Joining ALGBTIC
