Request for Qualifications

Project: Outdoor Mural – downtown Lumberton, NC

Artist/Artist Team Stipend: $9,000

Deadline: Thursday, April 4, 2019; 5:00 pm EST

Project Summary and Goals

The City of Lumberton, the Robeson County Arts Council, Rediscover Lumberton and the North Carolina Arts Council are seeking qualifications from professional artists, or artist teams, to design and paint a mural on a prominent building wall located between N. Elm and Chestnut streets in downtown Lumberton (See location map below).

The goals of this mural project are:

- To activate and enhance the cultural connectivity and economic vitality in downtown Lumberton through engaging artwork and creative placemaking.
- To honor the city's history, natural beauty, and cultural heritage.
- To add to the collection of public art.
- To deter graffiti.
- To provide opportunity for community engagement and ownership

The project should meet the following objectives:

- To create a mural that is colorful and inspiring for residents and visitors.
- To create a mural that reflects the unique characteristics and assets of Lumberton.

The mural wall commands a prominent location, with lots of visibility in the historic downtown Lumberton area. The mural wall is adjacent an enhanced pedestrian alleyway which connects the downtown plaza and pavilion to the Carolina Civic Center. The wall is approximately 2,820 square feet. (See included photos of wall area.)

Community Profile

Lumberton is one of eight cities in the North Carolina Arts Council's SmART Communities program which demonstrates how the arts transform downtowns and fuel sustainable economic development. The City of Lumberton has a commitment to creating a high-quality downtown, and to building a stronger community through preservation-based economic development. Lumberton is the county seat of Robeson County, North Carolina, which is the largest county in the state by land area.

Lumberton is located on the Lumber River, and a few miles north of the Lumber River State Park. It was founded in 1787 by John Willis, an officer in the American Revolution. Lumberton was developed as a shipping point for lumber used by the Navy, and logs were guided downriver to Georgetown, South Carolina. Most of the town's growth took place after World War II. Lumberton's population, reported in 2017, was more than 21,000, with a high proportion of residents who identify as Lumbee, one of North Carolina's largest state recognized Native American tribes.
