In October of 1970, Robert Conley, Vincent Losito and Don Chester opened Fox Valley Cycles, located at 419 Hill Avenue in Aurora (630/851-2910). Robert's Daughter, Chris Tracy, is now Finance and Office Manager; Jim Cromwell is Service Department Head. They are supported by a staff of 7 which, incidentally, includes Robert's Granddaughter Emily Tracy.

Fox Valley Cycles is a Honda Dealership, and as such sells new Vehicles (ATVs, Motorcycles, Scooters, SXS - Side by Sides - and Dirt Bikes), Genuine Parts, Riding Gear, Accessories and Branded Apparel plus Power Equipment (Snow Blowers, Lawn Mowers, Generators, Trimmers, Tillers, Pumps and Watercraft). In addition, their inventory includes a selection of pre-owned Honda, Suzuki, Kawasaki and Yamaha motorcycles from which to choose.

They accept Trade-ins of vehicles in good condition and offer Consignment Sales and Layaway as well. Expert Service for all listed brands is available. An online inventory shows all vehicles in stock; since product changes frequently, customers are encouraged to visit the store in person to determine if what they want to purchase is available. Online prices do not include tax, license, and title, or doc, set up or destination fees if applicable but do include all factory rebates, incentives and bonus bucks. Ask for details about Honda promotions which may be in effect at the time of purchase. An application for Honda financing can be completed at FoxValleyCycles.com. Zero percent APR is available for twelve months with a Honda Powersports Credit Card.
