~Letter from the Baron~

Well met!

Pennsic war is in full swing. Head count as of Monday afternoon was 10,488. What a crazy fun hobby we have, where 10,000 people get together from all over the world, to camp together for a week. If you've never been, you should go, at least once in your life. It is an exceptional experience. Classes, fighting, shopping, parties... sometimes all at the same time.

Closer to home, Poor Man's is this weekend.

This is right over in Wisconsin Rapids, about two hours away, and hosted by our good friends in Falcon's Keep.

<http://www.northshield.org/Events/EventAd.aspx?ID=2242>

St. Radegund's Faire is an excellent day of classes.

Also coming up, Fall Coronation.

<http://www.northshield.org/Events/EventAd.aspx?ID=2232>

Their Majesties Konrad and Aibhlin have ruled ably and well, but winter is coming, and with the turning of the seasons comes the changing of the reign. Their Highnesses, Kaydian and Cassandra, will become King and Queen on September 9th, over in Shattered Oak. This is particularly cool, as Her Highness is a former resident of Windhaven. Always cool to see a former Windie make good. :)

Crown Tourney will be October 7th, in beautiful Belle Fourche SD. Start planning your trip now, if you have not already, as it is a roughly 12.5 hour drive, just a little longer than Winnipeg.

In more local news, Her Excellency and I have about 7 months left in our tenure as Baron and Baroness. Please keep an eye on the turn-over process; there will be more news coming through about that, and paid members will have an opportunity to provide advice to the Crown about their choices for the next Baron and/or Baroness.

Last but not least, my usual plugs for ongoing local activities. Archery, Armored and Rapier practice on Sunday afternoons. Monday nights, alternating Rapier in Appleton on the 1st/3rd/5th Mondays, and dancing in Green Bay on the 2nd/4th Mondays. Wednesday night continues to be shop night and/or game night in New London.

Until next month, have fun, and play safe!
Grimmund
