Dear Sir

The undersigned and privates in your Company would most respectfully request to you and request you to the General Commanding the District that for several years previous to joining in the service of the Confederate States he was engaged in carrying the mail between Salina and St Marys - that when the contracts were let out last month he put in ~~in~~ a bid for the same route (No 68) and that he has received official information that the bid has been received and the route assigned to him, in proof of which he encloses with this to you a letter from the Chief of the Contract Bureau, of the Post Office Department of the Confederate States;

Upon the consideration of the premises he most respectfully requests that he be discharged from further service as a soldier in the C S Army in order that he may be free to carry mail contracts Earnestly Hoping this will meet with your prompt attention

I have the honor to be Sir With Respects from Yr Obedt Servt
