

The Clinton County Board of Realtors held their February meeting at the General Denver. President Sheri McIntosh called the meeting to order and the Pledge of Allegiance was recited. The minutes from the last meeting was read with a motion to approve made by Robyn Clifton, second by Ken Lundy-motion passed. The treasurer's report was give and a motion to approve was made by Betsy Hart, second by Ray Sarkees-motion passed

Under new business it was announced that out of 88 counties in Ohio, it was to only having 36 boards. Everyone needs to help with actives and get paperwork in. A discussion was held on if we as a board wanted to continue with the Matt Williams memorial scholarship. The discussion was tabled.

Old business: Steve Riehle gave an update on the board sponsored day of caring. Also a reminder about dues.

Our first 50/50 drawing was held with the winner being Cindy Moyer.

Speaker for the day was Taylor Stuckert of the Clinton County Regional Planning Commission. He spoke about the land bank and the incentive programs they have to offer.

A motion to adjourn was made by Ken Lundy.