October 22, 2017
 Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time
 Mt 22:15-21

“Whose image is this and whose inscription?” They replied, “Caesar’s”.

The image or name of emperors and kings was often embossed on the coins minted during their reign, both out of vanity (some even proclaimed themselves gods) and as a demonstration of dominance. During the life of Jesus the coins of the Roman Empire bore the image of Caesar. People living under Roman rule, either by choice or conquest, depended on Caesar for protection and commerce. Jesus recognizes the trap the Pharisees laid for him. They understood his response: To the extent that you depend on Caesar as the source of your life and existence, then “repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar.” But, if you recognize and accept that you are made in the image and likeness of God; and acknowledge God as the source of all that you are, all that you have, and all that you ever will be, then “repay to God what belongs to God.” Who is our God? Whom do we recognize as the source of all that we are? How do we repay to Him?

Celebrate!
Priesthood Sunday

Sunday, Oct. 29th is Priesthood Sunday. Priesthood Sunday is a time to celebrate and affirm the men who commit their lives to the Lord and the Church in the Sacrament of Holy Orders. It is an opportunity for Catholic parishioners to thank, affirm, and share their love and support for our priests. On this day, parishioners are encouraged to make a commitment to pray for all priests and especially for their own parish priests. It is also a time to pray for vocations to priesthood and to encourage young men to courageously seek God’s will and follow his call.

Special Collection:
Weekend of Nov. 3rd – 4th

Due to a special relationship with the Diocese of Chiapis in Mexico and the Diocese of Puerto Rico, Bishop Medley has invited our parishes to help with a special collection. He will send 75% of the proceeds to the Chiapis Diocese and the rest to Catholic Relief Services and Catholic Charities USA for assistance to U.S. dioceses. Thank you, in advance, for your generous donation!
