

DATA PROTECTION ACT 2018

We, as a society, collect some of your personal details, such as your name, postal address, phone number, email address and flock details when you fill in the membership application, registration forms and show and sale or society competition entry forms.

How do we use your information?

Lamb Registrations
Judges List
Members List
Point Show Results
Show & Sale entry forms
Flock Competition
Show and Sale trophy winners

We may also share your information with shows such as for the purpose of providing them with a judges list

We may take photos of you and your animals in some of the shows or sales, for the purpose of displaying in the society's year book, Facebook page or website.

We may use your email address / postal address to send you information regarding the society meetings and any other important information the society feels necessary.

Please Note

We are not changing the way we have used your information in the past, except that we are now required to have your permission to do so!

Please think very carefully before declining your permission!

In order to register sheep, they have to be recorded in the flock book – if we can't use your name, address etc, we are unable to print your registrations. Therefore, they won't be registered.

We are required to print a list of members in the flock book, which entails printing your details.

Our Judges list has to be circulated to points shows, as it stands if we are unable to give them your details, they will not be aware you are on the Judges list.

If we can't give your details to the society auctioneers, they won't be able to send you information, entry forms or catalogues regarding the sale.

To Summarise

If for any reason you feel you are unable to give your permission for the society to continue using your personal details, we regret to inform you we will be unable to list your details in the flock book, you will not be able to register your animals, you will not be invited to judge at points shows, you won't be able to enter the flock competition or the society show and sale and we won't be able to publicise any awards you may have won.
