HOW DID YOUR RUNS GO...

My first go run was not the prettiest. Bruno felt very choppy but we ended up placing 7th and won almost $500. Bruno does seem to get stronger and more confident with each run so I expected him to feel better his second run and he did; in the 2nd round he won the round with 17.2 and won $2,252.00. While he still had so many mistakes in the run he also improved a lot. (I keep comparing his LG win run to his others and then I remember, that's a once in lifetime run so then I move on...lol). We had to come back that afternoon and run in the short go. I had no expectations on winning it; I just wanted to make another good run. I feel like our short go run was our worst run of the weekend but it ended up being the fastest with another 17.2 for the weekend. We won about $7200. Winning the futurity was very exciting! I've been coming for the last 10 years and it's always fun, I've met a lot of new friends here that I now call family.

JUST THE WAY YOU ARE... "Bruno" is by the late Roosters Fame out of our mare Streakin Scat Cat. Roosters Fame was a Dun DTF stallion owned by Jonee Crozier of WY (we were very sad to hear his passing). Bruno was broke by my brother late in his 2yr old year. From there I started him early spring on the barrels. He was very easy about everything; his only weakness was being very spooky. He was a very handy colt. Bruno is owned by my mom, Kathy and I. He's been very consistent and won money at every futurity; he won the LG Pro Classic and is currently the leading futurity horse for 2017--LTE 127k. Bruno is the sweetest horse that we own; he's a people pleaser and just wants to be in your pocket. Six days after one of the most exciting nights of my life, my husband and I were in a head on collision on our way to the 2nd go of the Patriot futurity; that for us was a huge setback, emotionally and physically. Bruno has so much heart and try--he loves running barrels. Horses like him just make you smile from ear to ear.

Life is not about winning slot races and world championships but a much bigger picture, and I'm very blessed that I get to do what I love along the journey. Dream Big!

TRAINING...

I would consider myself a simple trainer--I don't do anything fancy. I feel like each horse has to develop its own style and I just help guide it. I don't like to pick on colts. They are going to make mistakes somewhere and it's how they learn; having good experiences is how they become great horses. Not all horses are going to make 1D barrel horses and that's okay. Bruno didn't get much barrel work at all prior to the summer futurities. He was mostly at BVSS getting therapies and swam on aqua tread. I took him to one show and got him qualified for AQHA World Show. Other than that he really didn't see any barrels.

He definitely is a very special horse and I'm very thankful for him. He's helped a lot of my dreams come true. I think with his speed and athleticism it just works and it helps that he's such a people pleaser.

I run him in a Dave Elliott Spur Up 12 with bead MPC; and a Shiloh Contender saddle 7" gullet--it fits his mutton withers very well. Classic Equine polos on all four. I use a Sport Innovations blanket on him when I'm on the road and I don't have access to Magna Wave PEMF. Then he lives in a cold water spa at home—lol.

FUTURITY CREW...

The whole 5-State crew goes above and beyond to put the event on. The ground is always super fast; they've had some smokin' runs on standard pattern for these babies. Lana puts her whole heart into it and that's what sets it apart. I will tell anyone that's never been to the area, my favorite eating places (aside from training horses, I love eating) are Tallys blueberry pancakes and Kathmandu.

I'll go to Fizz bomb, Parker Wood, Ardmore Futurity in September and then WPRA finals, JB Quarter Horse, World Show, and then the BFA at the end of year. My goal for the rest of the year is to have Bruno win the leading barrel futurity horse.

I've had a lot of support this year and there have been so many people who have helped out with the horses in some way I don't think I can name them all but my mom, my husband and my friends. Tiffany Sternfels helped Bruno get back on the map. Casey has always done an impeccable job shoeing the horses which is most important to me. The people around you can have the biggest influences on your life and I have so many positive people in my circle. Life is not about winning slot races and world championships but a much bigger picture, and I'm very blessed that I get to do what I love along the journey. Dream Big!

I also want to thank Brazos Valley Equine Hospitals, Bloomer Trailers, P & P Trailer Sales, Oxygen, Cetyl M and Behind The Alley.
