

Coach DaRond Stovall Bio

DaRond Stovall has been around baseball at all levels for his entire life. He attended Althoff High School in Illinois where he was a standout baseball player and was drafted right out of high school by the St. Louis Cardinals professional baseball organization. DaRond played at the professional baseball level for 13 seasons with numerous organizations at the A, AA, and AAA levels, and eventually making it to the major league level with the Montreal Expos in 1998. Following his success on the field, Coach DaRond now passes down what he has learned from a storied baseball career to aspiring young men as a High School coach and personal hitting instruction. Coach Stovall offers a world of experience to the young folks he mentors.

Some of his career highlights include:

- 🎯 Multiple Sclerosis High School Athlete of the Year - 1991
- 🎯 Drafted 5th Round by St. Louis Cardinals 1991
- 🎯 Selected to Florida State League (AA Cardinals) All Star Game – 1994
- 🎯 Named Expos organization defensive player of the year – 1995
- 🎯 Eastern Leag. Record 31 RBI's in April, Harrisburg (AA Montreal) 1996
- 🎯 Back to Back Eastern League Championships (AA Montreal) 1996-97
- 🎯 Opening day roster for the Montreal Expos 1998
- 🎯 Recorded first Major League Hit at Wrigley Field, April 1998
- 🎯 Grand Slam to beat the Atlanta Braves at Turner Field, June 1998
- 🎯 HR record (22) for the Somerset Patriots of the Atlantic League 2001
- 🎯 Dean's List – Fontbonne University 2009-12

Professional Experience:

🎯 Johnson City (R Cardinals)	1991	🎯 Montreal Expos MLB	1998
🎯 Savannah (A Cardinals)	1992	🎯 Albuquerque (AAA Dodgers)	1999
🎯 Springfield (A Cardinals)	1993	🎯 Calgary (AAA Marlins)	1999
🎯 St. Petersburg(A+ Cardinals)	1994	🎯 Edmonton (AAA Angels)	2000
🎯 West Palm Beach(A+ Expos)	1995	🎯 Somerset (IND)	2001
🎯 Harrisburg (AA Expos)	1996	🎯 Berkshire (IND)	2002
🎯 Ottawa (AAA Expos)	1997	🎯 Pennsylvania (IND)	2004

Career Major League Statistics:					Career Minor League Statistics:
G	BA	H	HR	RBI	G	BA	H	HR	RBI
62	.205	16	2	6	1306	.238	1096	140	624

Baseball Hitting Instruction
Coach DaRond Stovall
314-800-5974