

REFLECTION for the All Souls Day

It's not the thought of dying that I'm afraid of it, it's the thought of being dead.
These are words from a country song. And they carry a lot of truth for most of us. More so I believe when we think about our departed loved ones

We counter this reality with a faith-filled commitment to live life on this earth to its fullest. We can put-off dying to a degree, it can remain in our future. Yet death comes to all of God's earthly creation.

I have been gifted by Jesus to have stared imminent death straight in the face; and lived to tell the tale.

Today's second reading is from First Corinthians Chapter 15. To solace my soul in those times, Jesus led me to this wonderful joy-filled chapter of sacred scripture. It calmed my soul to the point wherein I accepted my dying as gift and was joyful in anticipation of the glories of heaven.

Take time to read in its glorious entirety 1 Corinthians 15. It will assure us of the hope we have for deceased loved ones. And more importantly we will be better prepared, and look more trustingly and longingly on our own death. Fr. Don

At this Mass we remember and call the names of all who have died over the last year. We have 19 names. Family members are invited to come forward to light a votive candle in remembrance of their loved one. We plan to also remember any and all parishioners who have died. But we need your help with this. Please contact the Parish Office with names.

EXPOSITION and ADORATION

This liturgy for the month of November will be celebrated on the 4th Sunday the Feast of Christ the King- Nov 23 at 2 pm instead of on the usual 3rd Sunday. Please mark this date and occasion as it is one of the major feast days in honoring Jesus as our Lord and Savior.

REMEMBRANCE DAY

Since Remembrance Day falls on a Tuesday this year, our Mass time will be changed from 9 am to 7pm This will allow more people the chance to attend and so to honour our veterans.

A representative of the 4th Degree K of C and a representative from the Royal Canadian Legion will be present to light votive candles in honour of our veterans. We encourage you to make a special effort to attend.

CBW111 HYMNALS

You may recall that we asked you to donate towards the cost of one of these hymnals recently. Two persons came forward.

WORDS OF HOPE

' When the perishable body has been clothed with the imperishable body, and the mortal body with immortality, then the saying that is written will come true: "Death has been swallowed up in victory. Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?'

JUST A THOUGHT

Do you know a widower living alone? During this month of remembrance, try to visit him/her.
