

LUNCHEON & GENERAL MEETING

November 19, 2009

Gather at 11:30 with Lunch at Noon

ELDER CARE ATTORNEYS

Deborah Gallagher Warner

Attorneys will speak about elder law and answer any questions you have regarding your later years.

Debbie is the daughter of our own Linda Gallagher and specializes in nursing home and malpractice law. Catherine focuses her practice in the areas of probate, guardianship, estate planning and Special Needs Trusts.

This is a fabulous opportunity to ask questions such as:

- What are my rights when entering an assisted living facility or nursing home?
- How can I prevent my long term care needs from eating away at my estate?
- What's the difference between a power of attorney and a guardianship?
- How do I know that a place will give me good care?
- What is the standard of care I can expect?

Make a list of your own concerns and be prepared to ask the experts. It's not often that you get free legal advice!

Joan's Journal

So...the leaves have changed colors in New England, and the ski slopes are already opened out west, and here we are in the middle of yet ANOTHER heat wave!!! and in October for Pete's sake.

This has been a very busy month, starting with our first Welcome Brunch for new and prospective members. As always, the ladies pulled out all the stops with their culinary talents. We are delighted to have new friends join our group and thank Louise Gallagher for her gracious hospitality in opening her home to us.

We also enjoyed a fun night at the Winter Park Playhouse laughing at an Improv group, following a quick dinner at Fiddler's Green. The playhouse has had a major facelift and it was nice to see a seat with a plaque thanking Newcomers for their donation to the cause...

We had a nice luncheon yesterday at Bonefish Grille with a good turnout. It's good to see friends, new and old. Our guest speaker, Dr. Robert Rosenberg, chiropractor, was friendly and informative, and I, for one, am going to spend more time smiling and laughing. The good doctor says it's an essential part of having good health.

Our big winners of the day.... Gloria Irwin won $68.50 in the 50/50 drawing, Sherry McFarland won a very pretty Halloween basket, TK White will be enjoying a free luncheon of her choice, and Virginia Elliott won a gift card to Publix. Congratulations! Pot Luck will be a little different this month...It's a progressive dinner with some added fun as we have been asked to come in costume. More on that next month...

I'm hoping many of you will join us for fun on Game Day. Lunch, door prizes and your favorite games with good friends to benefit the Russell House. Don't forget to attend Great Day in the Country on November 14, 2009. Sounds like a nice day to spend outdoors.

Please remind me if I promised helmet liners to you for the troops. If you pay for the wool, I will get it and crochet like crazy.. Do we have any other ladies who crochet and are willing to help? Contact me for particulars. We can even meet at my house if you would like that...

Don't forget the Winter Park boat ride in November. Let the ladies know if you will be attending....

I hope to see lots of you at our next luncheon...It's now Café Murano (used to be Gina's Lakeside) in Altamonte Springs. PLEASE don't forget to make your reservation by 5:00 p.m. on Friday the 13th. This is an early deadline, but the restaurant has requested an early head count.

We all wish continuing good health to Shirley Vining, Marquita Nelson, Judy Babine, Sherry McFarland and Edna Long. I hope I haven't forgotten anyone. Don't forget to smile.

That's it for this month ladies...it was a busy month, but lots of fun... Please join us at some of our many fun activities.

In friendship, Joan

Dr. Robert Rosenberg with President, Joan Bové

October Birthday ladies attending: DeDe Fluhr, Marquita Nelson, Louise Gallagher, Linda Dupuree and Chris Meyers.

LAMB, The Gospel According to Biff, Christ's Childhood Pal, by Christopher Moore

We voted for something edgy this time. LAMB is similar to the humor of Monty Python, especially "The Life of Brian". Moore never fails to deliver something deliciously decadent."

Don't misconstrue Moore as blasphemous. The book is a tale of what life might have been like for Jesus as a child. Though the author takes Jesus' studies seriously, this book is not meant to change the world. Seek it out with an open mind and a willingness to be entertained.

December 15th

The Lace Reader by Brunonia Barry

"Drawing comparisons to memorable gothic novels, including Rebecca and The Thirteenth Tale. Barry's modern-day story of Towner Whitney, who has the psychic gift to read the future in lace patterns, is equally complex but darker in subject matter. Repressed memories emerge. Violent confrontations, reminiscent of the hysteria of the witch trials, explode in this complex novel. The novel's gripping and shocking conclusion is a testament to Barry's creativity."

USA Today

Try out our Book Group. We choose books by voting and like to stay current. We always enjoy a lively discussion, made even better with opposing points of view.

"Descriptions of both books are giving me goose bumps- I can't wait to read them!" Denise
