

Morgan, William

William Charles Morgan, 71, passed away March 4, 2003 at the University of Seattle Hospital in Seattle, Wash. Bill was born on June 15, 1931 in Wyandotte to the late Ford and Katherine (Irish) Morgan. He was raised in Pinnebog on the family farm. He attended grade school there and then graduated from the Elkton High School in 1951. Bill married Ruth C. Sullivan of Bad Axe, daughter of the late John Clinton and Caroline (Irwin) Sullivan, on June 19, 1954 in Bad Axe. He farmed on the family farm for awhile and then in 1962, they moved to Seattle, Wash. where he worked for Boeing Aircraft until he retired after 30 years of employment. He also umpired baseball for little league when his children were young. He enjoyed watching the Mariners and playing on a pool league, a bowling league, fishing and just enjoying his family. He is survived by his wife of 49 years, Ruth C. Morgan, of Kent, Wash; two sons, William Thomas Morgan and his wife, Candi, of Maple Valley, Wash., Richard Morgan and his wife, Cheryl, of Enumclaw, Wash.; two daughters, Debra Beck and her husband, Steven, of Renton, Wash., Durema Boche and her husband, Ron, of Kent, Wash.; grandchildren, Darla Chamberlin and her husband, James, Jamie, and Sean Morgan, Kristina, Chelsea, and Cherie Beck, Marshall, and Charlie Morgan, Samantha, and Tyler Boche; great-grandchildren, Kristopher and Sabrina Chamberlin. A celebration of life was conducted at 3 p.m. on Sunday, March 9, 2003, at Cherokee Bay Community Clubhouse in Maple Valley, Wash. Memorials may be made to Diabetes Foundation.