Homeowners applying for a permit must do their own work. If a contractor does the work on a homeowner's permit, the permit will become null and void. No refund will be made. A new permit will then have to be issued to the contractor.

I hereby certify that I have read and examined this application and know the same to be true and correct. All previous laws and ordinances governing this type of work will be complied with, whether specified herein or not. The granting of a permit does not presume to give authority to violate or cancel the provisions of any other state or local law regulating construction or the performance of construction.
