

LESSONS IN LEADERSHIP FROM THE WISDOM OF THE SANDBOX

Reference: Really Important Stuff My Kids Have Taught Me by Cynthia Copeland Lewis

1. If you want pancakes for breakfast, help make them.
2. If you wait until you're really sure, you'll never take off the training wheels.
3. Three hops get you just as far as one leap.
4. Lunch tastes better out of a Power Ranger lunch box than out of a brown paper bag.
5. Remember everyone's favorite color.
6. You'll have a lot more respect for a bird after you try making a nest.
7. Anything can be a toy.
8. Kids aren't supposed to have clean fingernails.
9. "Follow the Leader" is a lot more fun if you are the leader.
10. Even babies like to grab for things just beyond their reach.
11. It's easier to knock on a door that's not shut all the way.
12. Nobody notices it when your zipper is up, but everyone notices it when it's down.
13. Being captain doesn't mean you're the smartest one, it just means you're the one with the boat.
14. Silence can be an answer.
15. Wave to people you don't know.
16. If a lady has a black thing on her tooth, tell her.
17. Squeeze the tube slowly, because once the toothpaste is out, it's pretty hard to get it back in.
