Maggie Anderson

Founder, The Empowerment Experiment
Author, "Our Black Year"

Join us for an evening with acclaimed author and activist, Maggie Anderson. Maggie and her family made history, endured death threats, dominated headlines, and touched millions when they took a stand to only support Black owned businesses for an entire year.

She has appeared on CNN, MSNBC, FOX News, CBS News and many other national television and radio shows. She has become the leader of a conscious consumer movement that supports quality Black owned businesses and mainstream firms with substantive supplier diversity.
