

SUNDAY MORNING MEDITATION

Every time Satan's power gives way to the Christ's, that's a coming of the kingdom of God. Jesus said, "If I drive out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you" (Matt. 12:28). Not the full or final kingdom; but a little manifestation of the kingdom is evident whenever God's will is done "on earth as it is in heaven." We're to pray and work for that. Jesus knew the Kingdom of God wouldn't fully come until His return. But He also knew that every time a life is rescued from Satan in His Name, God's rule has come to that life. So when God's will instead of the Satan's is accomplished in our lives—every time a soul is saved, a sickness healed, a marriage restored, or an addict set free—that's a small, but significant, coming of the Kingdom of God.

All for Jesus, Richard

As a Regional Director for EEM (Eastern European Mission), Jon Mark's task is to share the ongoing story of God's engagement in hearts and culture across Eastern Europe. Jon Mark travels the Southeast about 3,000 miles every month so that individuals and churches alike may be able to witness what is taking place as God engages Eastern Europe for His kingdom's sake. Jon Mark served 22 years in full-time church work and 5 years as Executive Director of the McGregor Chamber of Commerce and Economic Development Corporation in Texas. He has been married to Marie for 22 years and has been blessed with four children, Jon, Brayden, Kent and Emma. We are excited to have Jon Mark lead worship and preach for us this morning!

All Deacons and Ministry leaders need to have budget requests for 2020 turned in to an Elder by Oct. 27th. Thank you!
