It is finally here! I wrote, produced and directed “I Am A Caregiver” in 2015. After two screenings in Los Angeles and Canada, it is now being shown in Memphis. Please support my film by attending the screenings during the Indie Memphis International Film Festival. I am the only black female filmmaker in the line up, so this is a dual honor as a hometown artist. The Saturday screening at the Hattiloo Theatre (November 5, 2016 - 1:30p matinee) is sold out, however the Sunday screening is still available at 9p at Malco Studio On The Square, 2105 Court Ave, 38104, 725.7151 in the Overton Square district. Both showings are $10 (as charged by Indie Memphis). Tickets are required for attendance. You may purchase tickets one of three ways: online via www.indiememphis.com, or at the door PROVIDED seating is available, or see Dyan Lofton. Onsite parking is available, but limited. Street parking is available for overflow. Please share this information with friends, family, co-workers and students. Let’s fill the house in support of black films. Thank you for your continuous support! Kathy Lofton
