August 7, 2016
Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Luke 12:32-48

“Of those who have much, much is expected”

Johnny Manziel had a very successful career as quarterback of the Texas A&M football team. He assumed the moniker of “Johnny Football.” Despite reports of erratic behavior on and off the football field, Cleveland used their 22nd pick to draft Manziel in the 2014. At Cleveland, he did not perform well on the field. Off the field, his conduct was irrational, and possibly illegal. In less than two years he was released by the Browns. In June of 2016, his father stated, “He is a druggie . . . I hate to say it, but I hope he goes to jail.” Much was expected of Johnny Manziel. He had the opportunity to be a positive role model for young people. He had much, but chose not to be all that God had given him the ability to be. When Jesus said, “Of those who have much, much is expected,” he was challenging his disciples, and us, NOT to do like Manziel. God has given us much. Are we aware of all that God has given us? Have we used all that God gave us to the best of our ability? What have we chosen to do with it? Can we do better?
