By registering my child at the Perrineville Jewish Center Hebrew School, I agree that my child will participate in all family services and other activities held by the Hebrew School. Students are required to attend Hebrew School regularly. Excessive absences not discussed with the Principal or teachers will affect a student's promotion. A student who is absent is required to complete all missed class work. If a child misses a family service, they are expected to make it up on another Friday night or Saturday morning. Service attendance requirements are as follows:

Aleph-Bet Classes – 5 Services a year

Gimmel Class – 7 Services a year

Daled Class – 9 Services a year

Hey Class – minimum of 2 Services per month

(As of September 2016)

If a child fails to attend the required number of services, PJC reserves the right to withhold that child's Bar/Bat Mitzvah date until such time as the requisite service credits are met.

If a child loses a class book, they must replace it by purchasing another book through the Hebrew School.

The Hebrew School Student Handbook will be provided to all parents and students at a mandatory parent meeting prior to or on the first day of Hebrew School. The Handbook provides pertinent information for making Hebrew School a successful and rewarding experience for both parent and child.

Student Behavior – A disciplinary procedure is in place and will be followed. It is the policy of the Hebrew School to expect that all students maintain a satisfactory level of citizenship, proper behavior and respect toward clergy, staff and other students. Bullying will not be tolerated. The disciplinary policy is as follows:

- When a teacher feels that a child's behavior is inappropriate and a hindrance to teaching the rest of the class, the child will be removed from the classroom. After a discussion among the teacher and student, the student will be allowed to return to class.
- If the same student continues to misbehave in any manner, or if the behavior becomes worse, the child will again be removed from the class and sent to the Principal's office. Following a discussion with the Principal, teacher and student, the parents will be contacted and advised of the situation.
- Should the behavior persist, the child will again be removed from the classroom and the parents contacted and asked to pick him/her up from Hebrew School. The parents will then meet with the Rabbi and Principal to discuss the situation and come to a mutual solution to the problem.

Bar/Bat Mitzvah Lessons – All students who are to be Bar/Bat Mitzvah'd at the synagogue are to observe the following:

- All religious services will be held at Perrineville Jewish Center.
- All preparation lesson days and times will be given at the discretion of the Rabbi. Lessons will begin NO EARLIER than 6 months prior to the Mitzvah date (exceptions apply).
- All Bar/Bat Mitzvah dates and changes to dates must be approved by the Rabbi.
- Attendance at all services for further preparation are mandatory. Students who do not fulfill this requirement will not be sufficiently prepared and will not be allowed to lead services for their Bar/Bat Mitzvah.
- Lessons will NOT take place during Hebrew School hours.
- Your child's lesson time is reserved strictly for them. It is your and your child's responsibility to adhere to this schedule. If you are unable to attend at your scheduled time, you MUST contact the Rabbi in a timely manner to advise him of this. He can be reached at (732) 804-8969 (cell), 732-792-6143 (home) or via email at sschevelow@aol.com.

Failure to comply with these rules may result in dismissal from the program. Dismissal from the program forfeits all monies paid to PJC. Cooperation in these matters brings a more productive and unified environment. Questions regarding Hebrew School may be addressed by Inbar Robbins, Principal, at pjchebrewschool@gmail.com.

Parental Agreement:

I have read the above information and reviewed it with my child(ren). I am fully aware of the attendance requirements and will make every effort to ensure that my child(ren) fulfill all of the requirements. I am aware that failure to do so will have negative consequences with respect to grade level promotions, Bar/Bat Mitzvah dates or being able to lead services associated with the Bar/Bat Mitzvah. I understand that these rules and expectations are aligned with the Hebrew School Student Handbook which will be provided to me at the mandatory parent meeting prior to or on the first day of Hebrew School.
